LAWRENCE B. VALK,

ARCHITECT,

229 Broadway, New York City.

SPECIALTY,

CHURCHES.

The attention of Pastors, Trustees and Building Committees is called to the new form of circular seating on a bowled floor, combined with every requisite for comfort, seeing, hearing, and churchly appearance, as shown in the nine plates in Year Book of 1879, and the eight plates in this issue, and in all of the existing churches erected by him during the past eight years. Every regard paid to the cost to any required economy, and in all cases the cost will be guaranteed for complete edifices.

Pastors and Trustees are invited to correspond. Blanks furnished for the purpose of sending full particulars of the kind of church required. Sketches and full drawings made on most reasonable terms.

The following are some of the well-known churches erected: —

Talmage's Tabernacle, Brooklyn, seating 2,500. This was the pioneer church in the new form.

Central Congregational, Brooklyn, Rev. H. M. Scudder. Seats 2,200.

Church of the Disciples, New York, Rev. Dr. Hepworth. Seats 2,500.

Tompkins Avenue Congregational, Brooklyn. Seats 1,600.

South Hadley Congregational, South Hadley, Mass. Seats 750.

Congregational Church, Owego, N. Y. Seats 400.

Tabernacle Baptist, Albany, N. Y. Seats 700.

Presbyterian Churches: Fredonia, N. Y.; Canton, N. Y; Avon, N. Y.; and Troy, Pa.

First Congregational, Oakland, Cal. Seats 1,800.

Congregational Church, Grinnell, Ia. Seats 700.

Calvary Presbyterian Church, Peoria, Ill., and many others all over the country.

OBERLIN COLLEGE

OBERLIN, OHIO.

Department of Theology.—Instruction is given by the President, five Professors, and eminent special lecturers appointed from year to year. Students have commodious furnished rooms in the new and attractive building, Council Hall, which is devoted exclusively to the uses of this Department. They have free access to all the classes, libraries, and cabinets of the other Departments. Fifteen weeks during the summer can be spent in Home Missionary or other labor, with compensation, without interference with studies. The demand for such labor is greater than the supply. During the last half of the course the students have frequent opportunities to supply the neighboring churches. Students who need pecuniary assistance receive the usual aid from the American Education Society and from special funds under the control of the Seminary, enough in all cases to relieve them from embarrassment in pursuing their studies.

Department of Philosophy and the Arts.—Eleven Professors give instruction in this Department. The Classical and Scientific Course embraces the studies of our best colleges, so arranged that after the Freshman year the student may, by elective studies, give a classical or scientific character to his course, receiving the degree of A. B. at its close. For entrance, three years of Latin, two of Greek, and one term of Geometry are necessary. The Literary Course is like the above, with the exception that no Greek and less Latin is required.

Department of Preparatory Instruction.—Comprises a Classical School, which prepares students for the best colleges, and an English School, which offers the advantages of a first-class academy to those who can spend but a little time at school. Instruction is given by the Principal of this Department, six tutors, and about fifteen special teachers.

Expenses in all departments for tuition, incidentals, and board are very low. Students who do not wish to take a full course can select such studies in any department as they are prepared to pursue to advantage. Both sexes admitted. Location healthful, and religious influences the best. No drinking or billiard saloons in town. Circulars with full information sent free by J. B. T. MARSH, Secretary.

OBERLIN

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

Over three thousand students have received instruction in this Conservatory since it was established. Its faculty consists of five Professors, four of whom were educated in the celebrated schools of Leipzig and Paris, and all of whom give their entire time to this institution.

Instruction is given in class or private lessons, as preferred. The rates of tuition are exceptionally low, fifteen dollars a term paying for tuition in pianoforte, organ, violin, or singing, with other advantages of lectures, concerts, recitals, chorus singing, etc., making a total of from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and thirty hours of instruction in various branches each term. All living expenses in Oberlin are also very low.

The Conservatory is one of the departments of Oberlin College, and under the direct management of its Board of Trustees. By virtue of this connection it offers greater advantages for both musical and literary culture than can be obtained elsewhere. Diplomas are given to all who complete, in a satisfactory manner, its course of study. The terms of study begin in September, January, and April, each continuing three months. For fuller particulars send for catalogue to Prof. F. B. RICE, Director, Oberlin, Ohio.

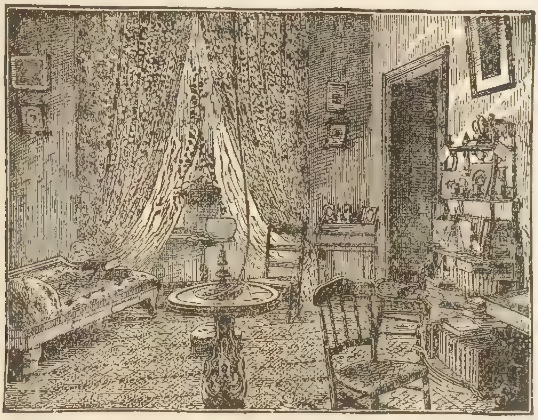
BRADFORD ACADEMY,

FOR YOUNG LADIES.



PARLOR OF A SUITE.

BRADFORD, MASS.

Bradford Academy is the oldest Seminary for young ladies in the country. Founded in 1803 and incorporated in 1804, it has been in successful operation ever since.

Bradford is on the line of the Boston & Maine Railroad, thirty miles from Boston. The situation is elevated, overlooking the city of Haverhill, across the river Merrimac, and commanding broad views on every side. The air is fresh and invigorating, and the healthfulness of the location has been abundantly proved during the past years of the school.

The building is of brick, four stories high, in the form of a cross, wide corridors extending from east to west, and affording healthful promenades in inclement weather. A parlor and two bedrooms constitute a suite of rooms for four pupils. These rooms are eleven and twelve feet high, and receive a full supply of air and sunlight. The school hall, recitation and music rooms, library, reading-room, gymnasium, parlors, dining-room, rooms for business, bathing-rooms and closets are all ordered on a generous scale for convenience, health and comfort. The entire building is heated by steam and lighted with gas, and supplied with abundance of pure water. No efforts are spared to make this a model establishment.

Board and tuition, $320 per year. Music, Drawing and Painting, extra.

Applications for circulars and for admission may be made to MISS ANNIE E. JOHNSON, Principal, Bradford, Mass.

LASELL SEMINARY FOR YOUNG WOMEN, AUBURNDALE, MASS.

"Lasell Seminary sends out its beautiful Annual. In some instances the engraving of the building renders the appearance of the site itself, when visited, a disappointment. In this instance the 'counterfeit presentment' gives only a faint idea of the charming scenery all around this pleasant seminary." — Editorial, Zion's Herald.

LASELL SEMINARY FOR YOUNG WOMEN,

AUBURNDALE, MASS.

(Ten Miles from Boston.)

"Jennie June" says: "Lasell is a true home school, one that parents can rely upon as being perfectly safe and pure in tone, where the best influences are brought to bear in forming a young girl's character."

We suggest to parents seeking a good school for their daughters the following considerations in regard to the special aims of Lasell Seminary in the education of young women:—

First. It is thoroughly home-like in character. A large number will never be received. A judicious, motherly care takes the place of given rules. The pupils soon feel that they are loved and trusted, and respond naturally to this trust, and are at their best. The system (peculiar to this school) of self-government, after a successful probation, appeals to the best motives, and rarely fails to strengthen in each young woman a sense of responsibility to herself that is most valuable for life.

Second. It gives special care to health. Young people, girls especially, ought not to work under such conditions that at the end of a school year they are tired out. It is our purpose that pupils shall constantly grow stronger in body as well as in mind. A lady physician is in regular attendance at the expense of the school, looks after ventilation, dress, care of the body, and advises proper work and recreation for individual cases.

Our building is open on every side to sun and air; the hours of sleep are long, and the table amply supplied with a variety of well-cooked and palatable food. Our drainage is perfect; we never have any malarious disease, and sickness of any sort is very rare.

Third. It has established a handiwork department. Believing that cooking, dress-cutting, millinery, and similar branches are of importance in every young woman's preparation for actual life, whether ever required for self-support or not, we have for some years given them attention quite unusual in schools. The instructors are Boston specialists, and these branches are placed on the basis of history, music, bookkeeping, or any of the studies taught.

Fourth. It gives unusual opportunities for the study of the modern languages. French and German are taught by one of the best masters in the United States. A few advanced pupils are received into the family of this teacher, who lives near the Seminary, where, while under our care as entirely as in the large building, they will in reality enjoy the advantage of living in a foreign family.

Fifth. Its musical advantages are unexcelled. Our teachers are specialists of established reputation in Boston. Instruction is given in limited classes, or privately, as desired. The courses for diplomas are more extended than in most conservatories, and pupils have the great advantage of hearing what is best in Boston, a centre of musical culture. Fifteen new and carefully selected pianos have just been placed at the service of the music pupils. They are mostly uprights, and are from Decker & Son, Knabe, Emerson, Hallett & Davis, Chickering, Miller, and Steinway.

Sixth. It gives thorough instruction in a broadly planned course of study quite above the grade of most seminaries. It utilizes constantly the rare opportunities which its nearness to Boston gives it, for securing the best masters in the various departments. In history and English literature we do unusually extended work. Mr. Henry N. Hudson supplements the class instruction in literature by weekly readings with the pupils, of Shakespeare and other English classics.

EXPENSES.—For a full year, including board, furnished rooms, lights, washing, seat in church, use of library and reading-room, lectures, tuition in all the studies of the course (except modern languages), freehand drawing, elementary vocal lessons, penmanship, calisthenics, etc., $350. No extras, except modern languages and ornamental branches, such as music and painting.

A reduction given to ministers in the pastorate.

J.A.&R.A.REID PROV.R.I. SC.

FOUNDED 1802.

THIS noted school, dating from the beginning of the present century, has a location which for picturesque beauty cannot be equalled in the world. It is on the direct route from New York to Boston. It is situated on the shore of the famous Narragansett Bay, and the view from the buildings has been pronounced equal to that of the Bay of Naples.

Its position by the seashore offers facilities for salt-water bathing, rowing and sailing. The healthfulness of location is unequalled.

All of the buildings are heated with steam, and lighted with gas, and the Boarding Hall is supplied with bath-rooms and other conveniences. The Principal and family and other teachers board with the students.

The institution is for both sexes.

EIGHT DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION.

GANNETT INSTITUTE

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

69 CHESTER SQUARE, BOSTON, MASS.

REV. GEORGE GANNETT, A. M. - - - - Principal.

LOCATION AND BUILDINGS.—It has one of the most beautiful and desirable locations in the city. The school building was erected expressly for the purposes of the Institute, on the most approved plan of architecture and interior arrangements. The entire establishment is heated with steam, and has all the modern conveniences.

ORGANIZATION.—It was organized twenty-seven years since, and its plan from the beginning has been eminently liberal and comprehensive.

DEPARTMENTS.—It has three departments: the Preparatory, Intermediate, and Senior. Thoroughness in character and methods of instruction characterizes each. The Senior Department embraces a four-years' course, which includes the Higher Mathematics, History, Philosophy, the Sciences, Ancient and Modern Languages, Art Studies, and the various Literatures.

A PARTIAL course may be taken, or a selection of studies is permitted.

DIPLOMAS are awarded to those who shall have honorably completed the prescribed course.

TEACHERS AND PROFESSORS.—In every department such teachers and professors only are employed as have been enriched by years of eminent success in their work; and so large is the board of instruction, in proportion to the number of pupils, that an unusual division of labor is secured.

LIBRARIES.—A Library of several thousand volumes, and a large and valuable Art Library, afford every incentive to reading, study, and research, outside of the text-books.

A HOME is found here for twenty-five young ladies and six of the lady teachers, who constitute a family of refining intimacies and social culture.

A LECTURE COURSE.—From eighty to one hundred lectures, upon History, Literature. Philosophy, Science, and Art are given annually, not to displace, but to supplement the class-room training.

DRAWING AND PAINTING.—In this department, a resident lady teacher, of well-known ability, is occupied during all the school hours. The Studio is filled with casts, natural and artificial objects, as well as flats.

IN FRENCH, GERMAN, AND ITALIAN, native teachers are employed, and a competent American lady superintends the class-room work.

TERMS for Day Pupils, from $80 to $200 per annum.

TERMS for Family Pupils: Board, and Tuition in English, French, Latin, German, Drawing, Penmanship, Physical Culture, and Lectures, $500 for the scholastic year. A discount is made to the daughters of clergymen.

The EXTRAS are Music, Painting, and Italian.

The twenty-eighth year commences Sept. 28, 1881.

MOUNT HOLYOKE SEMINARY,

South Hadley, Mass.

The forty-fifth year of this Institution will open Sept. 8, 1881. Its educational facilities in all departments have been greatly increased, while its general aims remain unchanged.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS.

The Library, a fire-proof building, completed in 1870, contains over ten thousand volumes. The Lyman Williston Hall, finished in 1876, has large and well-appointed rooms for lectures and recitations; a chemical laboratory; an extensive philosophical apparatus; a manikin and models to aid in the study of physiology and biology; and fine cabinets in the departments of zoölogy, botany and mineralogy, as well as Prof. Ward's complete university set of casts of fossil animals.

The entire upper story of Williston Hall is occupied by the art gallery, which contains valuable paintings, engravings, casts of statuary, photographs and coins.

An astronomical observatory is nearly finished, and equipped with all the requisite instruments. A passenger elevator of the best construction has lately been introduced into the main building. The grounds now include about twenty-five acres.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The regular course occupies four years; in addition to this, there are optional courses in French, German and Greek. All students receive lessons in vocal music, in choral classes. Those who wish to make music a specialty can have superior opportunities.

EXPENSES.

Board and tuition, including steam-heating, lights and lectures, are $175 for the school year. There is no extra charge for instruction in anything, except for private music lessons.

Terms of admission, and other information, may be learned by applying for a catalogue to

MISS WARD - - - Principal.

Wheaton Female Seminary,

NORTON, MASS.,

Was founded by Hon. Laban Wheaton, of Norton, in 1834, in memory of his daughter, to be a school for Christian education. It is on the Boston, Clinton, Fitchburg and New Bedford Railroad (Old Colony, Northern Division), within an hour's ride of Boston, and is in connection with all important points by railway and telegraph. It is in a healthful village, entirely free from all temptations and excitements. It is not a large school, and gives, therefore, opportunity for familiar personal intercourse between teachers and pupils. It has a very choice reference library of over three thousand volumes, one of the best furnished laboratories in the country, ample philosophical apparatus, an observatory with a fine telescope, and cabinets of natural history, all of which are accessible for study.

The design of the school is to impart an accurate, thorough and practical education. It especially aims, as it has done from the beginning, to base such education upon a hearty faith in the Bible, and a conscientious Christian life; and it is the endeavor that a pervasive but not officious Christian influence be constantly felt throughout the school.

The regular course of study for graduation covers four years, But pupils can join temporarily such classes as they are prepared to enter, without pursuing the full course.

The expense for the regular course, including tuition, board, room and heating, lights, washing (twelve pieces per week), $255 per year. The regular tuition of the daughters of clergymen and missionaries is remitted upon application before the beginning of a term. Several scholarships of one hundred dollars each are provided for deserving pupils.

Further information, catalogues, etc., furnished on request to the Principal,

G. T. Eaton, A. B., English and Mathematics.

The Academy continues to fit boys thoroughly and systematically, in large classes, and under an experienced Faculty, for the various colleges. The English department is also well organized and equipped for scientific and general studies.

The character of the circulation of the Year-Book makes it proper for the Academy to invite to itself in this card the attention of Christian ministers, a class always interested in education, and most frequently consulted as to the best schools. Clergymen have been educated here in exceptionally large numbers, and many ministers and missionaries are among its present patrons. The close vicinity of the Theological Seminary and the Abbot Academy for young ladies influences many parents in the choice of this school for their sons. Expenses may be kept within moderate limits, and pecuniary aid is open to pupils of superior merit who could not otherwise secure an education. Address the Principal.

ABBOT ACADEMY,

ANDOVER, MASS.

Abbot Academy is the oldest incorporated Academy (exclusively for girls) in this State, if not in New England. Incorporated January 9, and opened May 6, 1829.

The course of study covers four years, and embraces all the usual academical studies, special attention being given to Mental and Moral Philosophy, English and General Literature, the History of Art, and to the Latin, French and German Languages. Superior advantages are afforded in Music, Drawing, Painting and Elocution.

This Academy enjoys many incidental advantages through other literary institutions,— the Theological Seminary and Phillips Academy, in the same village, while easy access to Boston and Cambridge brings within its reach fine Music, Art Galleries, Museums, Cabinets, and the Botanical Garden, to all of which, classes with their teachers have occasional access. The Academy has a fine Clark Telescope, good working cabinets, models and apparatus of its own.

The domestic arrangements are peculiarly homelike. The school is divided into three separate families in separate houses, each under its own matron and teachers. One of these families is made up wholly of pupils in French, in which language the daily table-talk is carried on under the direction of the French teacher. Another family is occupied with German in like manner.

The school has been successfully conducted for twenty years by the same principal teachers, whose constant endeavor is to so educate girls that they may mature into healthful, cultivated, earnest, Christian womanhood.

The total expenses for board, including fuel, lights and washing, and for tuition, except music and drawing, is $300 per annum.

Application for admission or information should be made to

Miss PHILINA McKEEN, Principal, Andover, Mass.

In connection with the Semi-Centennial Celebration last June, a Catalogue of all past pupils and teachers of the Academy, with their present address, was published, and is now for sale by Mr. W. F. DRAPER. Price, 60 cents.

A full History of the School has been published within a few months.

Price, by mail, postpaid, with eight illustrations, $3.20; with one illustration, $2.20.

CHAUNCY-HALL SCHOOL,

THE OLDEST PRIVATE SCHOOL IN BOSTON,

No. 259 BOYLSTON STREET.

Established 1828.

One reason for the thorough preparation for college at this school is the small size of the Latin classes. If a pupil is in a large class, he cannot receive sufficient help in his efforts to master the difficulties of a foreign language; and if he is entirely under the care of a private tutor, he loses the drill and development that can be obtained only by contact with other scholars of his age.

The arrangements here aim to combine class work with private instruction. The Latin classes are divided into sections that seldom have over ten members each, so that every scholar receives a great deal of personal attention; and the teachers are ready to give extra help out of recitation hours.

The only Sophomore at Harvard who took honors in 1880, both in classics and mathematics, was prepared at Chauncy Hall.

The only Sophomore at Amherst in 1880 who took honors in mathematics, after having in the previous year taken honors in classics, was prepared at Chauncy Hall.

The attention of parents, particularly of those who wish their children to begin Latin at an early age, is invited to

1. The watchful care here in regard to Sanitary Matters.
2. The attention given through the whole Classical and English Courses to Composition, English Literature, and Declamation.
3. The aid in the formation of Character, Habits, and Manners.

The large number of Teachers affords unusual advantages for Students wishing to enter Professional Schools without going through College.

Every candidate presented by this school to college or to

The Institute of Technology

in 1880 entered without condition, though the class sent to the Institute was larger than from any other school in the country.

Young Ladies who are intending to take a collegiate course, or to enter the Institute of Technology, can have the great advantage of reciting in the same class with boys who are on the regular course of preparation, and of being under teachers who have successfully carried on such preparation for many years. Such students are now here fitting for Smith College, Boston University, the "Harvard Annex," and the Institute of Technology.

For the remarkably full business course see catalogues.

WM. H. LADD.

THE HOWARD UNIVERSITY,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

OBJECT.

This institution secures the advantages of education to the colored race, but is open to all students, irrespective of race or sex. It can accommodate 500 students, at a very cheap rate of expense.

DEPARTMENTS.

It has an Academic Department, embracing (a) The Model School Course of three years in the elementary English branches (students completing this course are prepared to begin either of the three following); (b) The Normal Course of three years, adapted to those who have the work of teaching in view; (c) The Literary Course of four years, designed to furnish a good practical education for those who are unable to take the full college curriculum; (d) The Classical Preparatory Course of three years; and (e) The Classical College Course of four years.

It has also three Professional Departments, — Law, Medicine and Theology. The two latter are especially flourishing. The Medical Department is under the charge of an able faculty, is the cheapest medical school in the land, and has access to a large national hospital on its grounds. The majority of its students are white. The Theological Course is adapted to the peculiar wants and future work of the students, and gives a regular or a special course. Its faculty and students represent several denominations, but it is supported by the American Missionary Association and by the Presbytery of Washington.

EXPENSES.

Tuition, $12.00 per year for the Academic Course. Room-rent the same. No charge to theological students for tuition or room-rent. Rooms are furnished, but students provide their own bedding (except mattress), towels, crockery, fuel and light. Board, $10.00 per month (cheap table, $8.00). Washing $2.00 per month. Law Department, $40.00 per year; Medical, $10.00 initiation fee, $30.00 graduation fee, and no tuition fee.

NECESSITIES.

Howard University appeals to the Christian public of all denominations for pecuniary aid. It has grounds and buildings which cost over $500,000, which are free of debt, but it needs permanent endowments for its professorships, and endowed scholarships for indigent students. Situated at the national capital, where its work is conspicuous, it has the noblest opportunity to reach all parts of the land with its elevating influence. Appeal is made, for generous contributions, to churches, Sunday schools, ladies' societies, and benevolent individuals.

Address

Rev. WM. W. PATTON, D. D., President.

FISK UNIVERSITY,

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Rev. E. M. Cravath, Pres.
Rev. A. R. Spence, Dean.
Rev. M. E. Strieby, D. D., Treas.
Edward P. Gilbert, Ass't Treas.

Fisk University was founded for the express purpose of giving Christian education to the emancipated millions of the South. Its location is central and in every way desirable for the purposes of a great University. Nashville is easily accessible, and is sufficiently elevated above and removed from the malarious regions to be a favorable place for study. It is the greatest centre of educational institutions in the whole South. Nearly every denomination has selected Nashville, or some point near by in Middle Tennessee, as the seat of its college or university for the Southwest.

HISTORY.

The work was begun immediately after the close of the war. There have already been established the following departments: Normal, with its Model School for practice, Higher Normal, College Preparatory, College and Theological. It is hoped that funds can soon be provided to establish departments of Medicine and Law.

The University has one large building named Jubilee Hall, in honor of its Jubilee singers, who raised the money to erect it. Its second building, Livingstone Missionary Hall, has been provided for by the munificence of Mrs. Daniel P. Stone, and is now being erected.

NECESSITIES.

The great and pressing necessity of the University is an adequate endowment. Fisk University is emphatically a missionary institution. The people, in whose interests it has been founded, were, sixteen years ago, slaves. The most of the students are dependent on themselves, and must earn their own support while securing their education. The colleges of no section of our country rely upon their students for the salaries of professors.

The current expenses of Fisk University have thus far been principally met by the A. M. A., but with the hope that the success of its work would create for it friends, who would gladly endow it.

We present to all who have money, and wish to use it in the interests of humanity, this opportunity of investing money in a permanent form, to do a most noble work in behalf of Christian education for the centuries to come, in this country and in Africa.

DRURY COLLEGE,

SPRINGFIELD, MO.

Drury College was organized in 1873 to promote — in the language of the first act of the churches looking towards the establishment of a College in their midst — "a large increase of PASTORS, TEACHERS, and thoroughly educated men of every calling."

It is justly termed "The New England College of the Southwest": New England in its management, spirit and standard of instruction.

All expenses are very moderate. Tuition is generally free to candidates for the ministry, and the children of ministers.

SPRINGFIELD, MO., Feb. 9, 1881.

THE NEW ENGLAND CONSERVATORY,

MUSIC HALL, BOSTON,

Is the Oldest in America, and the Largest Music School in the World.

25,000 pupils have availed themselves of its advantages, and many of them are now Professors and Teachers in leading Institutions, and artists in this country and in foreign lands.

It employs the ablest Professors and Teachers, and possesses unequalled facilities for imparting a

FINISHED MUSICAL EDUCATION.

Students in the regular course in the Conservatory may pursue their studies in THE ENGLISH BRANCHES FREE, and when sufficiently advanced can be admitted to classes in the course in the BOSTON UNIVERSITY, FREE OF TUITION.

The New England Conservatory is connected with the College of Music of Boston University, and gives certificates and diplomas, and confers degrees upon its students, upon the completion of the various courses of study in the Catalogue.

Unsurpassed advantages are offered to students who pursue the Artists' course, which comprehends a preparation of the student for the Concert-room, Oratorio and Lyric Stage.

LOCATION.

Being situated in Boston, the acknowledged centre of musical and literary culture in the country, students can enjoy all the advantages of lectures, concerts, musical, literary, scientific and other entertainments, which cannot be equalled elsewhere in America, and have access to a library containing over 8,000 musical works. Seven hundred concerts were given last season in Boston.

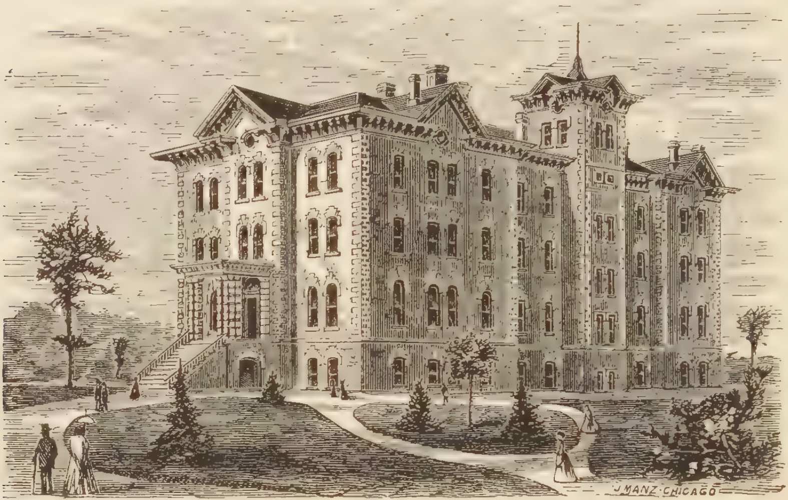
Collateral advantages are furnished, amounting with a single study to one hundred and twenty-five hours of musical instruction in a term, and this does not include the literary studies which may be pursued in the Conservatory without charge.

TUITION IN CLASSES.

Fifteen dollars per quarter of ten weeks in either Voice, Piano, Organ, Violin, Flute, Harmony, Theory, Art of Conducting, Elocution, etc. Private tuition in the Conservatory when desired. Send for Circulars to

E. TOURJEE, Director.

WASHBURN COLLEGE.



THE NEW COLLEGE BUILDING. (130 x 54 ft.)

It is located at Topeka, the capital of Kansas. Tuition, Thirty Dollars a year. In attractive and comfortable facilities for room and board at extremely low rates, and in increasing appliances of Library, Cabinet, and Apparatus, the College now offers unusual inducements to youth of both sexes desirous of securing a liberal education.

For further information, address PETER McVICAR, President, Topeka, Kansas.

CARLETON COLLEGE,

NORTHFIELD, MINNESOTA.

Carleton College was founded by the State Conference of Congregational Churches, and located at Northfield, on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, forty-two miles south of St. Paul. It entered upon regular college work in 1870, and the first class was graduated in 1874. Every year has witnessed a steady advance in the number of students and instructors, in the various facilities for complete collegiate instruction, and in public confidence and reputation.

It is the aim of the college to provide an education liberal and thorough, according to the standard of scholarship in the best Eastern institutions, and under influences distinctly and earnestly evangelical.

There are in general four departments: the Collegiate, the Preparatory, the English and the Musical; all of which are open on equal terms, to students of either sex, irrespective of race, nationality, or denominational preferences.

Three collegiate courses are presented: the Classical, the Literary, and the Scientific; each occupying four years in addition to preparatory work.

The Astronomical Observatory is fully equipped for practical work, and has been made by the United States government a Signal Service station. Special facilities are offered for advanced study in astronomy and pure mathematics.

Carleton is the only college under Congregational auspices (except the Pacific University in Oregon), in that immense empire lying between the Mississippi River and the Pacific, and north of the forty-second parallel of latitude, or Northern Iowa and Nebraska. In its relation to Home Missions and to Christian civilization in the Northwest, its importance cannot be overestimated. It has a great work to do, and for this work its resources should be very largely and speedily augmented. Postponement means loss. Present aid will effect more than ten times the same amount a generation hence.

For specific information, address

JAMES W. STRONG, PRESIDENT.

COLORADO COLLEGE,

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO.

This institution was founded in 1874. The central block of the building, shown in the cut, is now completed, and the wings will soon be added.

Both ladies and gentlemen are admitted. Only teachers of eminent ability are employed. The location is peculiarly adapted to the health of the students, and to the pursuit of studies in Natural Science.

For courses of study and other information, address

BELOIT COLLEGE.

THIS is one of the oldest and best Colleges of the West, and is growing in the estimation of the people. It offers five courses of study: a Classical, intended to give the highest and best literary culture, and a Philosophical, the broadest and truest scientific training; there are two other courses preparatory to these, and one for business.

Its aim is to give the best physical, mental and moral culture possible; to furnish such a training as will fit one for the practical duties of life. Its scholarship ranks with the best. Its different departments are thoroughly manned. It has well-appointed Chemical, Geological and Zoölogical laboratories, a standard suite of philosophical apparatus, improved by valuable recent additions, a fine library and museum, and a well-equipped gymnasium.

Expenses are very low. Aid is given to deserving students from scholarships and other educational funds, and various facilities are offered to those who desire to work their way.

Those who believe in a Christian training, that intelligence and piety should go hand in hand, that character is the chief thing, will do well to avail themselves of the advantages of this College.

Spring Term commences April 13, 1881. Commencement, June 29. Fall Term begins Sept. 7, 1881. For information, apply to Pres. A. L. CHAPIN, Beloit, Wis.

TABOR COLLEGE,

FREMONT COUNTY, IOWA.

Tabor, 32 miles southeast of Council Bluffs, 475 west of Chicago, was settled in 1852 by a colony from Oberlin, Ohio, who, after a year of prayer and planning, moved into the West for the purpose of establishing a Christian College.

There has never been a drinking or billiard saloon in the place.

Tabor is upon high, rolling prairie, 300 feet above the low lands of the Missouri River, in a healthful and beautiful region.

All departments are open to both sexes and all races. The instruction is designed to be as thorough as can be found anywhere.

The College Department includes Classical, Scientific, and Literary Courses of Study, of four years each.

The Teachers' Department includes a two-years' course of study.

The Preparatory Department has facilities for fitting for the higher departments and for general business, and for this purpose is designed to be equal to the best Academies.

The Department of Music is in charge of a Professor, aided by competent assistants.

Expenses are kept at the lowest practicable point, so that those who have to depend upon themselves can secure a thorough education.

Tuition, $6.50 to $8.50 per term.

Books can be rented at one fifth their cost.

Scholarships, good for four years' tuition, may be purchased for $50.00.

Professor C. A. White, now of Bowdoin College, Maine, said, in his Geological Report of Iowa:—

"The soil of Fremont County is an inexhaustible source of wealth, for it is almost wholly composed of that fine lacustrine material known as Bluff Deposit, which is perfectly homogeneous from top to bottom, and when thrown out upon the surface from a hundred feet below it, its fertility is almost as great as that already upon the surface." See Vol. I. p. 361.

For those who are seeking homes in the West, the vicinity of Tabor College presents many attractions.

Fall Term begins Sept. 6, 1881.

Catalogues sent on application to Pres. WM. M. BROOKS, Tabor, Iowa.

MARIETTA COLLEGE,

MARIETTA, OHIO.

LOCATION.

The institution is located at the junction of the Muskingum River with the Ohio, where the first settlement in the Northwest Territory was made in 1788, by a New England colony, composed chiefly of the officers and soldiers of the Revolution. The sons of the first settlers, many of whom had received a liberal education, founded the College, and have been among its most generous benefactors. Over seventy of its graduates are the lineal descendants of the early settlers.

GENERAL FEATURES.

As the town is a New England town, so the College is emphatically a New England college, presenting almost every feature of the typical college of the Eastern States. Forty-three classes have been graduated, numbering 498 alumni; of whom all but fourteen have been in the classical course. The permanence of the students is a characteristic feature, over sixty per cent of those who have entered the classical course having completed it. Few have left to go to older colleges, and the small loss from this source has been made good by accessions from other institutions. The number of volumes in the College and Society libraries is 28,500

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

In the Collegiate Department there are two courses of study, leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Philosophy. In the latter course the Greek is omitted, and additional instruction is given in the modern languages and in the physical sciences. All the instruction in the Collegiate Department is given by permanent professors.

A PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

The Marietta Academy furnishes thorough preparation for college, and gives to those not expecting to take a collegiate course all the advantages of the best academies and high schools. The instruction is wholly by graduates.

The general expenses are moderate. Tuition in the College is Forty-five Dollars per annum, and in the Preparatory Department it is Thirty. The institution has thirty or more scholarships, founded by benevolent persons, on the basis of one thousand dollars each, which are for the most part in the gift of the College. In this way gratuitous tuition is provided for deserving young men of narrow means. The Spring Term begins April 14; the Fall Term, Sept. 8.

ISRAEL W. ANDREWS, President.

OLIVET COLLEGE,

OLIVET - - - - - - MICH.

The Spring Term opens April 7, 1881; the Fall Term, Sept. 15, 1881; Winter Term, Jan. 5, 1882.

EXCELLENT ADVANTAGES AT MODERATE EXPENSE.

The College Department embraces both Classical and Scientific Courses, each extending through a period of four years.

The Ladies' Course is a modification of these, and also extends through a like period.

The Preparatory Department includes both an English and classical course, the latter fitting students for the best American colleges.

The Normal Department furnishes a two-years' course, qualifying students for successful teaching in the public schools of the State. Teachers' classes are formed at the beginning of the Fall and Spring Terms.

The "Michigan Conservatory of Music" furnishes facilities in Organ and Piano playing, Harmony, Counterpoint, Fugue, Musical Composition and Vocal Culture unsurpassed in any of the schools of the country.

RIPON COLLEGE - - WIS.

Ripon College was organized in 1863. Since that time it has made steady progress in providing buildings and furnishing them with the best facilities for instruction within reach, in manning its departments with able and devoted teachers, and in general reputation and influence.

It is the aim of the Institution to provide for the liberal education of young men and women, and in doing this, to keep its standard fully up to that of the best Western colleges, and its methods of instruction in harmony with the most enlightened views of education. It aims also to furnish a thorough preparation for the pursuit of college courses, and to provide a sound practical education for such as may desire to fit themselves for common-school teaching or for business. Its purpose is also to make the expense of pursuing a course of liberal study as low as is consistent with a high degree of excellence in its results, and thus to keep a liberal education within the reach of young men and women of limited means. It is likewise the earnest purpose to conduct the Institution on distinctively Christian principles, and to have it pervaded with a strong and healthy moral and religious influence. While aiming at the best results of intellectual training, its instructors ever bear in mind that character is more than these, that the development of character is an essential part of the work of an educational institution, and that there is no sound basis of character except in Christian principle.

Classical, Scientific and Musical courses of study are provided, and thorough Preparatory and English Schools, under the care of the same faculty, fit pupils for the higher courses. Supervision is constant, and self-help is particularly encouraged.

Ripon is situated in the region famous for beautiful summer resorts, the healthfulness of its climate and absence of malarial diseases. Send for Catalogue to Pres. E. H. MERRELL, Ripon, Wis.

DOANE COLLEGE,

CRETE, NEBRASKA.

CHARACTER. This Institution is the child of the Congregational Churches of Nebraska. It has for its object to secure a thorough Christian education. It is open to students irrespective of race or sex.

COURSES OF STUDY. Preparatory Classical and Scientific courses, each of three years; Collegiate Classical and Scientific, of four years each; Literary course of five years; Teachers' course of four years; Music and Drawing.

SITUATION AND NEEDS. A frontier State in its formative period, with good and evil struggling for the mastery; foreign influences strong, missionary churches weak; the College in close sympathy with these churches; the institution prosperous, but in great need of further aid. The extremely low price (less than one sixth the cost) at which tuition must be placed in a new State is itself a most urgent plea for endowment funds.

He who gives to endow Doane College helps to solve the important question, What shall be the future for religion and education in this frontier State?

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL HYMNAL. Compiled and edited by Rev. CHARLES L. HUTCHINS. The Largest and Cheapest Sunday-School Music Book ever published. Price 50 cents. Send for sample.

Dr. J. T. DURYEA says: "I have been through the book from beginning to end. It is the best Sunday-School Hymn Book I have ever seen. It will wear for years."

Dr. C. L. GOODELL, St. Louis, says: "The hymns are choice, the music largely new and fine. The chants and responsive prayers are an excellent feature. It is the beginning of a return to a higher and more valuable service of praise for children."

Rev. HENRY W. FOOTE says: "Incomparably the best collection for the purpose. It is a treasury of good hymns and good music; admirable in arrangement and completeness. When I compare it with the other books of Sunday-School hymns and music, I am filled with admiration."

THE BEST SELECTED SUNDAY-SCHOOL LIBRARY.

Selected by a committee of practical Sunday-School workers and writers, under the supervision of our Sunday-School Secretary, Rev. A. E. Dunning, and a committee consisting of Drs. Duryea, McKenzie, Herrick, Means, Quint, and Clark. The selections are made with great care, and we are confident will meet a long-felt want of our schools.

"The Gem of BIBLES"

The "OXFORD."

Sunday-School Superintendents, Teachers and all other Students of the Bible would do well, before making their selection, to read this:—

The SUNDAY SCHOOL TIMES says,

"The demand for good editions of the "Bible with fitting helps to its study is "on the increase among Sunday-school "teachers; and the effort to meet this "demand promotes a healthful competi-"tion among publishing houses. It has "not been easy at all times to decide in "favor of any one edition above all others; "hence such a request as the following— "from a correspondent in Tennessee— "could not have been answered by us with "positiveness until a few months ago. He "says:—

THE QUESTION.

"I desire you to tell me which is the best "Teachers' Bible among the kinds adver-"tised. I want the best Bible for "Teachers."

The Best.

THE "OXFORD"
Sunday School Teachers'
BIBLE.

THE Cheapest.

THE ANSWER.

"We have no hesitation in saying that, "all things considered, the OXFORD TEACH-"ERS' BIBLES are better for the Sunday-school "teacher than any other with which we are familiar."

☞ The Sunday School Times, of Sept. 25, 1880, in reviewing and comparing the various editions of TEACHERS' BIBLES now offered, further says:—

"All things considered, we prefer the OXFORD TEACHERS' BIBLES to the London, and it is between these two that the choice is commonly to be made. The range of editions and prices of the OXFORD is as large as any. The paper and printing are better than the London. The binding leaves nothing to be desired. The main helps of concordance and index, taken together, are an improvement on the London. The various other helps which are likely to be of most practical service to the average teacher are more compact, and better arranged for their purpose, than the corresponding material in the London."

PREFATORY NOTE.

This issue is made by the direction of the National Council of the Congregational Churches assembled at St. Louis, Mo., in November last. The lateness of the date when it was ordered, and the omission of all tables last year (rendering double work now necessary), has delayed the publication.

By order of the Council, a copy is sent to each church, and one to each minister, by mail, postpaid.

The issue of 1879 contained illustrations, of whose cost some complaint was made. The present issue contains still more, especially plans of churches. It should be said, (1) that the former plans proved to be of material assistance to various churches; and (2) that the added cost this year is far more than provided for by special donations for that purpose.

The addresses of the officers and committees of the National Council will be found on page 215, and of the State organizations upon page 216 and those immediately following. The addresses of officers of our benevolent societies are on pages 42–52; of the professors of the theological seminaries, on pages 53-61.

The preparation of the Year-Book of 1882 is already commenced. It is believed that the plans now matured will secure its issue in the first week of January next. But for one State, whose date of meeting is late in the autumn, it could be issued in December, and it is decided to issue the Year-Book promptly, whether complete or otherwise.

DESIGNS IN CHURCH ARCHITECTURE.

In 1879, with the first issue of the Year-Book, we illustrated some nine designs for churches, small and large, with a view to introduce to our local and Western societies the new forms which have now become extensively adopted as embracing essential features in building a church. The tendency of the present age is rapidly developing towards the artistic in architecture; and in this second effort to bring to the notice of pastors and building committees some of the later forms and designs we have taken the care and trouble to illustrate, we hope that they will give them the study and thought the plans and designs merit. To build a house to the Lord, and invest your money in it to him, does require close study how best to do it; how best to secure the greatest effect for the cost, both inside and out, and how best to secure that comfort, that beauty in unspeakable and inanimate forms, for the cost. The cost,— yes, that is the point. It is asked at once, Can we obtain the beautiful front? and we say, Why not? We show it here in these illustrations; why don't you try it? Why not let every dollar spent represent a feature of strength and beauty? And here it is fully exemplified in these plans. Study them; see how they are seated; notice how the people are clustered around the platform; notice the plan of the lecture rooms, in the arrangement of the doors and windows, and the embellishment of the necessary open fireplace for comfort, warmth, and ventilation. It is often asked, Why are not the prayer meetings better attended? Pray, what is there to attract? When evening comes round for our religious duty, in what does the attraction consist from your own warm parlors and firesides? In so many hundreds of cases, what is there beautiful, cosey, comfortable, and interesting in our present lecture rooms? To solve that problem we here show how it is done. By so making these audience rooms the very picture of cheerfulness in their arrangement, having open fireplaces, the room seated with chairs or most comfortable seats, and an entire absence of that set form and stiffness to be seen everywhere. The house of the Lord demands it; demands everything beautiful, and in keeping with his holy work; everything that tends to elevate and refine our fellow beings, and teach them to appreciate the beautiful, as given to us and implanted in us by our Lord. With these few remarks we now ask you to study these plans and designs, and then go and build likewise. Write to the architect. He will tell you what, and how to do it; how to build for your means, and within your means, and how to obtain the points and results we conscientiously lay before you.

We present to building committees and trustees the accompanying plans and designs, prepared expressly for this issue of our Year-Book, and designed by the same architect as illustrated the Book of 1879, Lawrence B. Valk, of New York city. We call especial attention and examination of these plans in particular, as illustrating the points heretofore mentioned, as combining the essential features required and needed in our small churches throughout the land, and the adaptability to any kind of a location or site. The circular seating with the radiating aisles at once gives —

First, the social element of congregational worship.

Second, the advantage of several sizes in the pews, to seat three, four, five, and six persons.

Third, the inclined bowled floor, — yes, bowled, — which is the secret of the great success of these plans.

Fourth, any style of architecture will adapt itself to these plans. We show a variety of forms in this issue in the outward appearances, and our building committees and trustees will now find, on reading the short descriptions of each design, just what they want, or approximating to their requirements.

The following gives the description of the church plans furnished by Lawrence B. Valk for this issue of the YEAR-BOOK. For the places where each plan may be found, see "List of Illustrations" following "Table of Contents":—

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 1.

This small church is 32 x 40, with two class rooms directly in front, opening into and a part of audience room; seats 220 in the pews; two vestibules. The class rooms are 12 x 15, or there can be only one room 12 x 32 in front. The partition is of vertical sliding sash, and when down this makes one or two fine, pleasant meeting rooms. Every attention is paid to the heating by stoves of a new make and pattern, and securing a perfect circulation and ventilation. This church is a frame building, on a stone foundation; small cellar; shingle roof; gables and tower shingled; open belfry; enamelled glass; pews pine; interior with wood ceiling; side walls plastered, and its cost complete was $3,670.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 2.

This building is also a frame structure; audience room 36 x 36, with a fine, beautiful class or prayer meeting room in front, 13 x 22, opening into audience room, with sliding sash; and off the rear end are two more fine class rooms, each 11 x 15, with sliding sashes. This plan seats 190 in pews, and was designed especially to accommodate a large Sunday school; construction same as No. 1; cost complete was $4,800

In both Nos. 1 and 2 the outside is painted two coats; inside is filled, rubbed, and hard oil finished.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 3.

This plan is for a brick structure, with timber framing in the walls of gables; size of audience room, 28 x 50; seats 227 in pews; has a fine lecture room in front, 14 x 20, used for infant class; two vestibules, each 9 x 12; choir and organ back of pulpit; shingle roof; the walls are built hollow, of local hard brick, rubbed, stained, and pencilled black; open bell-cote; arched wood ceiling; all outside woodwork is painted two coats; inside is filled, rubbed, and hard oil finished. Cost complete was $3,780.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 4.

This is for a brick building; size, 36 x 47; seats 240 in the pews; two vestibules, and a beautiful lecture and Sunday-school room, opening full into and a part of the audience room, as needed; the organ is back of the pulpit; choir and keyboard down in front; roof is slate; ceiling arched, of wood; cost complete was $4,875.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 5.

This church was designed for a frame structure, slate roof, stone foundation; size, 40 x 45; seats 275 in the pews, which are of ash and cherry; organ is back of pulpit; choir is down in front in first three middle pews. The peculiarity of this design is the open clear-story to a beautiful arched ceiling of iron (now so much used, as there is nothing yet used or invented equal to it). It is heated by one furnace in a small cellar. The cost of this building was $5,200.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 6.

This beautiful church is a frame building; the size is 40 x 50 to audience room, seating 325 in the pews of ash and cherry; slate roof; iron ceiling, in groined arches; Sunday-school adjoins and opens into audience room; choir back of pulpit, with organ; and in all its appointments every feature is first-class; cost was $7,800. This price included two furnaces, lighting-by-gas machine and fixtures, and Valk's complete system of ventilation, which is in all of these designs, in part or wholly so.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 7.

This is for a stone structure, built of stone local to the place, laid up in rock-face ashlar work, in square courses. The audience room is 56 x 60, seating 436 in the pews. The roof is of slate; the ceiling iron, in groined arches, decorated. The vestry or Sunday-school is 20 x 60, and is divided into three rooms, the middle one opening into church. We have a study; three fine vestibules; organ back of pulpit; choir down in front; and I will here say that this arrangement of having choir down in front is rapidly advancing in its perfect adaptation to congregational and social worship in this form of plan. The cost of this structure complete was $11,870, including decorating, heating, lighting, and ventilating.

PLAN AND DESIGN NO. 8.

This elegant structure is also of stone, with a tall spire 120 feet; walls of local blue granite, rock-face, Ohio stone trimmings, sills, lintels, caps, etc.; slate roof; stained glass; hard-wood, ash, and cherry for all internal finish; iron arched ceiling, decorated, and decorated side walls; size of audience room, 60 x 60; seats 525 in comfortable sittings; and choir and organ back of pulpit; vestry adjoins the church, opens into it, and has a fine lecture room, 20 x 41; parlor, 17 x 26; kitchen, 9 x 15; study, 9 x 14, and every convenience, with heating, lighting, ventilating, everything to make it complete. The co~t was $28,000.

NORTH CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.

We quote from the pastor's Statement at the dedication:—

"At a meeting of the congregation called for Monday, April 9, 1877, the committee reported $37,114.68 subscribed. Thereupon, a building committee was appointed, of which Gov. Horace Fairbanks was made chairman. . . .

"Before winter set in the foundation was completed, and the ground brought up nearly to grade. For this, and to complete the grading, 3,514 cartloads of earth were requisite.

"We had thus far expected to build of brick. During the winter the desire became general and strong to employ stone. At length, as the season drew near for renewing operations, Messrs. Horace and Franklin Fairbanks made to the building committee this proposition: To build a stone church, substantially according to the plans before us, for the subscriptions, the committee keeping the amount good as nearly as possible, and the old house. Such an offer was of course accepted, and the opening spring, 1878, witnessed the vigorous renewal of operations. The stone selected was the Isle La Motte marble. It was brought by boat to Maquam Bay, and thence across the State by rail. The walls are backed with brick. The main partitions are also of brick.

"Sept. 16, the corner stone was laid. Before another winter set in the chapel walls were up and covered, and those of the main building had reached the eaves. The dimensions of this house are as follows: Length of audience room on the floor, 76 feet; including gallery, 90 feet; breadth, 56 feet; do. including transepts (each 35 by 9), 74 feet; height, 42 feet. Dimensions of chapel, including parlors, 73 by 35 feet. All these are inside measurements. Entire length outside, 162 feet. Height of turret from the ground, 140 feet.

"The contract for building was made with E & T. Fairbanks & Co., who proposed to take the subscriptions pledged, and the old house when the church was through with it, and erect a new one substantially according to the plan adopted by the building committee. This has been done, and the beautiful edifice dedicated to-day is free from debt."

The cost is not made public.

OUR PRESENT FIELD, as reported in 1880, includes seventeen missions, the statistics of which for a single year are exceedingly instructive, illustrating both the breadth and variety of our work. This work includes direct evangelistic effort through missionaries and native helpers; an immense educational trust extending from the primary school to the college and theological seminary; Sunday-school instruction; the preparation, publication, and circulation in different languages of books, tracts, and newspapers; assistance in the erection of buildings for churches and schools; grants in aid to feeble churches and to native home missionary societies; the humane service of missionary physicians, sometimes in the care of large dispensaries and hospitals; also charitable ministry, continuous and varied, to the sick, the poor, and the oppressed. All these departments upon the foreign field are economically managed under the one efficient and experienced administration of the American Board.

OUR PRESENT FORCE, now occupying seven hundred and nineteen stations and out-stations, numbers but one hundred and forty-seven ordained missionaries, of whom seven are physicians, and two hundred and fifty assistant missionaries, making a total from this country of three hundred and ninety-seven. Our native force is more than thrice this number, a total of 1,427, of whom 465 are native pastors, preachers, and catechists.

OUR NATIVE CHURCHES, two hundred and seventy-three in number, not including those of the Hawaiian Islands, enroll nearly seventeen thousand members, of which number over nineteen hundred were received last year, over fifty-seven hundred during the last three years, on confession of their faith in Christ.

OUR TRAINING AND THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS, including station classes, twenty-nine in number, are giving instruction to nearly twelve hundred young men, many of them fitting for the Christian Ministry.

OUR GIRLS' SCHOOLS, of the higher order, thirty-eight in number, enroll over thirteen hundred pupils, many of them fitting to be teachers, many of them to be Christian wives and mothers, constituting the educational power of Christian homes for the next generation.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS, seven hundred and thirty-seven in number, enroll over twenty-seven thousand pupils, making a total of over thirty thousand under Christian instruction.

REGULAR DONATIONS FROM THE CHURCHES, which during the past three years have fallen below the contributions of the preceding three years by more than $100,000, need to advance at least twenty per cent in order to meet the annual appropriations. Upon these donations and upon ordinary legacies we must rely for the support of the regular work of the Board, the munificent Otis bequest having been sacredly set apart, and already to a considerable degree expended, for evangelistic and educational enlargement, and for new missions in Africa. May we hope for a contribution, as generous as possible, not only from every church and Sunday school, but also from every individual who desires to be personally identified with this broad Christian work? Our main instrumental reliance for awakening and deepening missionary interest is upon pastors, sustained by their churches and Sunday-schools.

MISSIONARY INTELLIGENCE. — For missionary intelligence read regularly The Missionary Herald and Life and Light, the Monthly Magazines of the American Board and of the Woman's Board of Missions; The Mission Quarterly, illustrated, for young people and Sunday schools; sketches of missionary fields and familiar letters printed, not published, which can be obtained at 1 Somerset Street, Boston.

AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY.

FORMED by the union, in 1874, of the "American Education Society" and the "Society for the Promotion of Collegiate and Theological Education." The American Education Society was organized and received its charter from Massachusetts in the year 1816. The College Society, as the other organization was popularly called, was formed in 1843. It was for years a voluntary association without a charter. In 1872 it received a charter also from the State of Massachusetts. These two organizations were brought together under a new charter from the same State, in May, 1874.

OFFICERS, 1880-81.

President.— CHARLES BENEDICT, Waterbury, Conn.
Vice-President. — SAMUEL HOLMES, New York city.
Secretary. — Rev. INCREASE N. TARBOX, D. D., Boston.
Treasurer.— JAMES M. GORDON, Esq., Boston.
Assistant Treasurer.—Rev. A. H. CLAPP, D. D., Bible House, New York.
Office of the Society, No. 10 Congregational House, Boston.

Income of the Society for year ending April 30, 1880, $64,097.47. Of this amount $38,983.15 was devoted to the help of Western institutions, and $21.800 was appropriated to young men in colleges and theological seminaries, studying for the ministry. The balance was for current expenses.

In both departments the Society has had a large agency in the formation of society throughout the great West. The men who were pioneers in the work of preaching the gospel in the new settlements, and in the founding of churches and schools, were largely educated by this Society. The colleges which are now among the foremost in these Western fields were largely built up by the same agency.

The whole number of young men assisted by the Society in their studies for the ministry since 1816 is 6,809. The institutions at the West which have been assisted by the Society since 1843 are the following, viz.: Western Reserve, Illinois, Wabash, and Marietta Colleges, and Lane Theological Seminary. These five are the institutions which the Society took under its care at the beginning, in 1843. Those which have since been received on the list are Knox, Beloit, Thayer, Wittenberg, Oberlin, and Berea Colleges, the College of California, Pacific University, Olivet, Ripon, Iowa, Carelton, Doane, Drury, Washburn, and Colorado Colleges, and Pacific Theological Seminary.

The ten last named are still upon the Society's list.

The number of young men now receiving assistance from the Society is 280.

At the time when the Education Society began its work of helping young men into the Christian ministry in the year 1816, the condition of things in this country was very peculiar. The great movement of emigration toward the West was setting in with strength. The American Board had been organized a few years before, and the cause of Foreign Missions was taking strong hold upon the churches. But "the laborers were few." Ever since the close of the Revolutionary war, the churches had been in a confused and preoccupied state, and the number of men coming forward for the work of the ministry was alarmingly small. It was in such a state of things that this Society began its enterprise. Through the aid thus afforded, and through the impulses thus imparted, a host of living preachers was raised up to go with the moving colonies out into the fields of the West, or to go far hence to the Gentiles to proclaim the Gospel of Salvation through Jesus Christ. A work of inestimable importance for the Christianizing and civilizing of our own land was accomplished by this instrumentality. The ministers raised up by this Society became to a large extent the pioneers in the way of founding churches, schools, colleges throughout all those Western fields, while in foreign lands half the missionaries laboring under the care of the American Board had been brought forward in the same way.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I do hereby give and bequeath to the "AMERICAN COLLEGE AND EDUCATION SOCIETY" the sum of —— dollars, to be paid within —— months after my decease, and to be applied to the uses and purposes of that Society.

☞ Thirty dollars constitutes an Honorary Membership.

THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

WAS organized May 25, 1853, at Boston, and received its charter from the Massachusetts Legislature, April 12, 1854. Its present officers, in part, are:—

SAMUEL D. WARREN, Boston, President.
RUFUS S. FROST, Boston, Chairman of Board of Directors.
SAMUEL T. SNOW, Esq., Boston, Treasurer.
REV. ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, D. D., Boston, Corresponding Secretary and Librarian.
MISS MARY E. STONE, Boston, Assistant Librarian.
REV. DANIEL P. NOYES, Wilmington, Mass., Recording Secretary.

The object of this Association is "to establish and perpetuate the religious history and literature of New England, and for the erection of a suitable building for the accommodation of the same, and for the use of charitable societies; also to do such acts as may promote the interests of Congregational churches," etc.

Its library is intended for reference, having as its specialties everything published by the Pilgrims and Puritans, and their predecessors, contemporaries, and successors, which states or illustrates the principles and polity of Congregationalism, its history, its doctrines, its influence, and indeed the same things in regard to every denomination: thus everything ecclesiastical, — theology, controversy, results of councils, sermons, church manuals, minutes of religious bodies, every one; Year Books, and all such like; also all local histories, county, State, and United States histories, genealogies centennial, ordination, funeral, and all historical sermons, all commentaries on the Scriptures, every biography, national, State, and municipal statistics, printed reports of all kinds, catalogues, obituary records, and inaugurals of all our literary institutions, together with any manuscripts, autographs, or mementoes which relate to the objects above named.

On the 20th of May, 1880, the library had 27,549 books — 6,039 of which were duplicates — and over 120,000 pamphlets, including duplicates secured almost exclusively by gifts, as there has never been a dollar appropriated from the building fund with which to buy a book, nor can there be until the present onerous debt is greatly reduced. Duplicates furnish a basis for exchanges, for which the librarian has large facilities, and of which he avails himself to the uttermost; and in this way he can assure all kindly disposed persons that they can send him no printed pamphlet or book that he cannot make useful here.

The library has now more of the early publications of our country and of the mother country which illustrate the principles and relate the deeds of our first settlers than any other public library in the United States; but it is still lacking very much of this sort that is scattered here and there, essentially useless where it is, but would be invaluable here; also much more of the later and contemporaneous issues of the same general character found in every parish and town, more or less. Now, let these be collected and sent here by some good friend in each church, as a few have already done.

The Congregational House is a four-story granite structure, one hundred and three feet on Beacon Street, and ninety-three feet on Somerset Street, having stores on lower floors on Beacon Street, and rooms above for the A. B. C. F. M., the Woman's Board, the American College and Education Society, American Missionary Association, City Missionary Society, Woman's Home Missionary Society, Massachusetts Home Missionary Society, American Peace Society, the Congregationalist, etc. The fire-proof library room is in a connected building; accessible, light, pleasant, safe, and has capacity for more than 100,000 volumes.

The great WANT of this Association is the hearty sympathy and co-operation of every Congregationalist, expressed in "one fair contribution" from each of the more than 2,300 Congregational churches that have not made it; the gift of at least one dollar from every member, to be made a life-member of the Association; the gift of the twenties fifties, hundreds, and thousands from the more highly favored; testamentary gifts, if not earlier bestowed. Then this great property would be disencumbered, and all our strictly benevolent societies would be forever afterwards free from rent, thus insuring a good dividend to the cause of Christ upon every benefaction.

Let all remittances and communications be addressed to

ISAAC P. LANGWORTHY, Cor. Secretary,

AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL UNION.

President. — Rev. Edwin B. Webb, D. D., Boston, Mass.
Corresponding Secretary. — Rev. Wm. B. Brown, 59 Bible House, N. Y.
Treasurer. — Prof. N. A. Calkins, 59 Bible House, N. Y.

The American Congregational Union was organized in 1853. Its chief work has been to aid feeble churches in building houses of worship. It has helped to build, East and West, chiefly West (including those aided from the Albany Fund), 1,110 meeting-houses, and is now pledged, Jan. 1, 1881, to sixty-seven others; which is many more than one third of all the Congregational Churches in the land. Most of these sanctuaries could not have been built at all, and none of them when they were, but for the aid furnished by the Union. The aggregate sum expended in this church-building work is about $1,000,000. This money is protected from loss to the Congregational cause should the churches aided fail, or cease to be evangelical Congregational Churches. Our protection now, and for years past, is in the form of a trust mortgage on the whole property — carefully drawn, executed, and recorded — on payment of last bills. We have thus accumulated claims of one sort or another upon upwards of $3,000,000 of property. Nothing can be lost should any of the churches fail, as, for one reason or another, they sometimes do. In the last few years we have received back from churches that have failed or gone over to other denominations, over $50,000. If all the money given by Congregational churches and people to the work of church-building could go to its destination through the Union, not a dollar would be lost. Every house built is dedicated free of debt; and our trust-mortgages, besides protecting the gifts, keep the churches from running in debt afterwards, as they cannot borrow money on their property because of our underlying claim.

Churches, if they are to live and prosper, must have sanctuaries. As well might families live in the streets, or business men carry on business without offices, factories, store-rooms, or farms, as for churches to live grow, and become strong and useful without houses of worship. It is coming to be more and more recognized that, as a rule, if a church cannot be housed it should not be organized. And as a rule, too, new churches, in a new country, must have a little help if they build early, and they must build early if they are to build at all. A meeting-house often more than doubles, at once, the strength of a congregation, and adds from 50 to 100 per cent to the efficiency of the minister. In no other way can $500 do so much for a new and struggling church as to secure for it a neat house of worship; and to secure this by so stimulating and developing the energies of the people as to make church-building a possibility, and the church a nucleus around which the neighborhood may crystallize.

The new regions on the frontier advancing westward are opening as they never did before; and the little churches, everywhere organizing, are calling on the Union almost daily for aid in building roof-trees over their heads. They need missionaries; but the missionary must have a meeting-house to preach in. This is not simply desirable; it is imperative. A missionary can do no more without a meeting-house than a meeting-house can do without a missionary. And yet one half of the missionary churches, west of the Missouri, are houseless.

The funds of the Congregational Union, though increasing, are utterly insufficient to meet the demand. While our sixty-seven pledges in advance, amounting to about $28,000, are beyond our receipts, we should yet be glad to pay a large proportion of them immediately, and are only waiting for the terms, mutually agreed upon, to be complied with. We do not pledge what we shall not promptly pay.

The late National Council at St Louis voted, unanimously, recommending that the Congregational churches contribute annually to the Congregational Union not less than $100,000. With this sum, and no less, the most urgent calls can be promptly met. If every Congregational church in the land will put this cause on its list of annual contributions, will make it the peer of the other great benevolent societies, and give to it as generously, then the recommendation of the National Council will be met, and not the Union only, but all the other great interests interlinked with church-building, and dependent on it for their success, will be advanced as well. In the name of the little churches on the border lines that must have help or die, in behalf of the work of Home Missions that cannot prosper without meeting-houses, and of Foreign Missions also, in the interests of our own denomination, and especially of our common country and the world, we make our appeal.

THE AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY,

INCORPORATED under the laws of the State of New York, was organized in New York city, May 10, 1826.

Ohio Home Missionary Society ....Rev. SAMUEL WOLCOTT, D. D., Cleveland.
Illinois Home Missionary Society ....Rev. JAMES TOMPKINS, Chicago.

THE HOME MISSIONARY, a monthly magazine, published by the Society, at sixty cents a year, including postage, gives a running account of the progress of the work in all parts of the country, chiefly from the pens of the superintendents and missionaries personally engaged in it. An Annual Report sums up the results of the year.

THE LEAFLET, a monthly tract, price five dollars a hundred for the year, is devoted to the Sunday-school department of the Society's work.

For nearly fifty-five years the Society has been organizing churches, mainly in the West, and aiding in the support of their ministers till those churches are able to assume the whole expense. Its missionaries have from the first organized Sunday schools, provided proper teachers for them, and by watchful oversight have secured their permanence and highest usefulness. The Society now also raises and disburses money for supplying these missionary Sunday schools with libraries and other helps.

In connection with the labor of its missionaries, 4,022 churches have been organized, and 2,053 have come to self-support. It has collected and disbursed in cash about $8,740,000, and in clothing, books, and other supplies, largely the offerings of Christian women, more than $1,238,000: in all, over $9,970,000. The additions to the churches have been 297,368. Schools, academies, and colleges in nearly every Western State are among the direct fruits of the work.

The number of missionaries employed in its fifty-fourth year (1879-80) was 1,015, nearly 650 of them in States and Territories west of New York. They preached regularly in 2,308 stations, and at frequent intervals in many hundreds more. The number of Sunday-school and Bible-class scholars was about 96,724. The additions to the churches were 5,598 — 2,940 of them on profession of faith. Eighty-six churches were organized, and forty-four came to self-support. Last year's receipts were, in cash, $266,720.41; in supplies, $60,000: in all, about $326,741.

At least $350,000 in cash are needed this year to sustain the missionaries now in the field, and to take up only such new work as the providence and Spirit of God imperatively call upon the Society to assume at once. For securing the means essential to the carrying on of this great work the Society depends, under GOD, on the zealous co-operation of the pastors and members of the Congregational churches of the land.

AMERICAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

Organized September 3, 1846.

President. — EDWARD S. TOBEY, Boston.
Corresponding Secretary. — Rev. MICHAEL E. STRIEBY, D. D., 56 Reade Street, New York city.
District Secretaries. — Rev. CHARLES L. WOODWORTH, 21 Congregational House, Boston; Rev. G. D. PIKE, New York city; Rev. JAMES POWELL, 112 West Washington Street, Chicago.
Treasurer. — H. W. HUBBARD, 56 Reade Street, New York city.

WORK.

Its field of labor in this land is among the negroes, the Indians, and the Chinese; and in Africa among the Mendi people on the western coast. It is in contemplation, also, to establish another Mission in Central Africa this very year.

STATISTICS.

CHURCHES: In the South. — In Virginia, 1; North Carolina, 6; South Carolina, 2; Georgia, 13; Kentucky, 6; Tennessee, 4; Alabama, 14; Louisiana, 17; Mississippi, 4; Texas, 6. Africa, 2. Among the Indians, 1. Total, 76.

INSTITUTIONS FOUNDED, FOSTERED, OR SUSTAINED IN THE SOUTH. — Chartered: Hampton, Va.; Berea, Ky.; Talladega, Ala.; Atlanta, Ga.; Nashville, Tenn.; Tougaloo, Miss.; New Orleans, La.; and Austin, Texas, — 8. Graded or Normal Schools: at Wilmington, Raleigh, N. C.; Charlestown, Greenwood, S. C.; Savannah, Macon, Atlanta, Ga.; Montgomery, Mobile, Athens, Selma, Ala.; Memphis, Tenn., — 12. Other Schools, 31. Total, 51.

TEACHERS, MISSIONARIES, AND ASSISTANTS. — Among the Freedmen, 264; among the Chinese, 22; among the Indians, 11; in Africa, 13. Total, 330. STUDENTS. — In Theology, 102; Law, 23; in College Course, 75; in other studies 7,852. Total, 8,052. Scholars taught by former pupils of our schools, estimated at 150,000. INDIANS under the care of the Association, 13,000.

MAGAZINE.

The American Missionary is published monthly, at fifty cents a year, but will be sent gratuitously, if desired, to the Missionaries of the Association; to Life Members; to all clergymen who take up collections for the Association; to Superintendents of Sabbath schools; to college libraries; to Theological Seminaries; to Societies of Inquiry on Missions; and to every donor who does not prefer to take it as a subscriber, and contributes in a year not less than five dollars.

WANTS.

An increase of funds to support missionaries and teachers, build chapels and school-houses, aid students in courses of education; and supplies of every kind for the multitudes of poor and needy. Cash or supplies can be sent as below: —

NEW YORK — H. W. Hubbard, Esq., Treasurer, 56 Reade Street.
BOSTON — Rev. C. L. Woodworth, Dist. Sec., Room 21, Congregational House.
CHICAGO — Rev. Jas. Powell, Dist. Sec., 112 West Washington Street.

FORM OF A BEQUEST.

"I BEQUEATH to my executor (or executors) the sum of —— dollars in trust, to pay the same in —— days after my decease to the person who, when the same is payable, shall act as Treasurer of the 'American Missionary Association,' of New York city, to be applied, under the direction of the Executive Committee of the Association, to its charitable uses and purposes."

The will should be attested by three witnesses [in some States three are required, in other States only two], who should write against their names, their places of residence [if in cities, their street and number]. The following form of attestation will answer for every State in the Union: "Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said [A. B.] as his last will and testament, in presence of us, who, at the request of the said A. B., and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses." In some States it is required that the will should be made at least two months before the death of the testator.

THE CONGREGATIONAL PUBLISHING SOCIETY

Is the servant of Congregational churches. It is economically managed, and all its gains inure to the profit of the churches, and the upbuilding of the Kingdom of Christ.

If the principles of our denomination are essential to the growth of that Kingdom, then a publishing society is necessary to the prosperity of the denomination. It proclaims through the press what ministers proclaim from the pulpit. It declares the great facts concerning the Kingdom of God. It sets forth the history and explains the principles of our polity. It prepares and furnishes all kinds of aids to study in our Sunday schools. It seeks to provide appropriate books and papers for children and youth in our congregations. It has appointed, and proposes to sustain a Sunday-school Secretary, whose business it shall be to supervise the preparation of this literature, to systematize and give direction to Sunday-school movements, to increase enthusiasm among the churches in this important work, and to direct the charities of the churches towards establishing Sunday schools, and providing weak and new ones with such equipment as shall enable them to move on to success. All money contributed for Sunday-school work will be devoted to that object without any deduction for expenses. All money contributed to the publishing fund will be appropriated for the printing and distribution of religious books and tracts, and for promoting the interests of the denomination as a factor in hastening the triumphs of the Kingdom of Christ. All money contributed without specified object will be divided between the publishing fund and the Sunday-school work, according to the judgment of the managers. The good of the churches will in all cases be the first aim.

We can have no successful denominational Sunday-school work without a publishing society. Other denominations discovered this fifty years ago. The Methodist Church has equipped its Book Concern with a capital of $2,000,000, and has a thoroughly organized Sunday-school Board. The Baptist and Presbyterian Boards of Publication, with large capital, commodious buildings, and well-chosen officers, have contributed largely to the superior success of those denominations. The Congregationalists have largely neglected their interests in this direction, and have fallen behind in consequence. We believe that our work as a denomination is needed to maintain the principles of self-government and freedom by which New England was settled, and by which truth has been maintained in the land; that by loyalty to the denomination we shall be most loyal to the Kingdom of which we are a part.

In order that our denomination may advance, its principles and polity must be made known. This is especially important in new communities, where people are considering on what basis to form churches. It is one object of our Society to make these principles known through its publications. We have brief, popular, clear statements of the character and workings of Congregationalism, as well as excellent books and tracts on general religious subjects, but from lack of funds they have been distributed far less than they should be. One Home Missionary Superintendent writes that he has himself borne the expense of circulating as many as he is able, with effective results. But it is not right that such burdens should be laid by the churches on our missionaries.

Especially does the Sunday-school Work imperatively demand help. From newly formed schools at the West, from the multitude of colored schools at the South, come urgent requests for charts, papers, lesson helps, libraries. No other source of help is open to them than our Society. They will soon be the churches, and their present teaching will determine the spiritual type of those churches. What more useful charity than to extend to our weaker brethren that light on the Word of God, that in these days we who work in Sunday schools so much enjoy! No work, preaching excepted, is more urgent and effective.

We ask the support of every Congregational church and Sunday school in contributions. We also ask their patronage. Our charitable work may be greatly advanced if ministers and laymen will buy their literature through us and induce their friends to buy also. The Society proposes to furnish whatever books or Sunday-school supplies are ordered, published on either side of the Atlantic, at as low rates as they can be honestly furnished anywhere. The profits will all go to promote the efficiency of the work of the churches. Orders from the most distant points will be supplied by mail or express at minimum cost.

If Congregationalists will co-operate with one another in this work, and recognize this Society as their agent, they can do a mighty work for good.

THE NEW WEST EDUCATION COMMISSION

WAS incorporated November 3, 1879, after mature deliberation, discussions in several ministerial bodies, and extended correspondence. Its founders were deeply reluctant to add another to existing benevolent societies, and refrained from doing so till convinced that no other organization would assume the work which, in their view, was of most pressing importance. New emergencies had arisen, disclosing new perils; and they believed that imperative demands justified the creation of special instrumentalities to meet them.

Nature of the Demands. — Several States and Territories of immense extent, and enriched with mineral deposits and agricultural wealth of inconceivable value, are attracting a vast immigration; and the institutions of education and religion fail, utterly, to keep pace with the demand for them.

The question demanding careful consideration is, Whether Christians and patriots ought not, by immediate and liberal gifts, to establish and maintain at various central points in all those regions well-taught Christian schools?

The time is propitious. New life is entering these Territories. Old customs are giving way. Even Pueblo Indians are purchasing American plows, and the younger Mormons and Mexicans are uneasy under the reproach that attaches to their people. It is seed-time; and the best seed in hundreds of localities is the Christian school.

Work Already Commenced. — The Commission has now under its charge six Academies and five schools of lower grade.

SALT LAKE ACADEMY. — Prof. Edward Benner, Principal; Messrs. W. M. Barrows and Marcus E. Jones, and Miss Alice M. Keith Instructors.

SANTA FE ACADEMY. — Prof. Horatio O. Ladd, Principal; Miss Ella C. Atkinson and Miss Helen M. Loomis, Assistants.

ALBUQUERQUE ACADEMY. — Prof. Charles S. Howe, Principal; Miss Mary Snyder, Assistant.

LAS VEGAS ACADEMY. — Prof. W. H. Ashley, Principal; Miss Annie G. Wood and Mrs. Lucy R. Campbell, Assistants.

TRINIDAD ACADEMY. — Prof. Henry E. Gordon, Principal; Miss Susie W. Benedict, Assistant.

LEADVILLE ACADEMY. — Prof. John Kershaw, Principal.

OTHER SCHOOLS IN UTAH. — Salt Lake Primary, Miss Lena A. Wakefield and Miss Mary F. Fairchild. Hooper, Miss Lydia M. Tichenor. Farmington, Miss L. M. Lawson. Stockton, Mrs. Kate M Ashley. West Jordan, Miss Maggie Hoffman.

The current year is a very prosperous one. The schools have now more than seven hundred enrolled pupils; and late letters speak of increasing numbers, the decay of opposing prejudice, and opening fields.

A more needy and promising field cannot be found in the world. It will repay teachers, and the charitable who support them, as richly as Turkey or Japan

The Woman's Home Missionary Association have taken the responsibility of supporting one of the teachers named above. Another Ladies' Society in Worcester have assumed the support of another. Various churches and individuals and Sabbath schools have lent their aid, but much more remains to be done; increased donations are needed to prosecute the work, and these are earnestly solicited. "Woman's work for woman" has risen within a few years into great prominence, and in this channel such work may find not only safe avenues, but opportunities for effecting immeasurable good.

The Commission was started in the West, and more than three fifths of its revenue the current year has been given by Western men. But the East is equally interested with the West, and it is believed will welcome with equal heartiness the appeal herein made.

Economy of Expenditure. — The Commission intends to press its work with the least possible outlay. Only such expense will be incurred as shall be found essential to the vigorous and complete prosecution of its plans.

THE WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

On the 4th of November, 1879, in pursuance to a call issued by Mrs. Withrow, of Boston, Mrs. Barnes, of Haverhill, Miss Johnson, of Bradford, and others, a meeting was held in the vestry of Park Street Church, to organize "a society for the prosecution of Home missionary work." This meeting, which was largely attended, resulted in the appointment of a committee to draw up a constitution, to nominate an executive committee and list of officers, to propose a name for the new organization, and to report at such time and place as deemed best by them. This committee worked steadily and patiently in the midst of many perplexities, and at last presented the report, at a meeting called for the purpose, Feb. 26. At this meeting the present name of the Woman's Home Missionary Association was accepted; the constitution presented was adopted, article by article; and the Executive Committee nominated were voted in by ballot.

The Executive Committee thus chosen entered immediately upon its work, holding its first meeting a week from that time, March 4. At this meeting the first call for aid came in a letter from Mrs. Joseph Cook, asking for co-operation with the work of the Anti-Polygamy Society, in Utah. The month of March, during which five meetings were held by the Committee, was spent largely in the work incident to the formation of all new societies — such as preparing By-Laws, appointing sub-committees, providing and furnishing a suitable room, distributing notices of the new Association through the churches, etc. A public meeting, however, was held March 18, when the minutes of the previous meeting, at which the Association was organized, were read and approved, as were the By-Laws of the Executive Committee. At the meeting which followed, in the afternoon of the same day, addresses were made by Dr. Webb, of Boston, Dr. Strieby and Mr. Woodworth, of the American Missionary Association, and by the Rev. Robert West, of St. Louis, and Dr. Storrs, of the American Home Missionary Society.

Of the missionaries suggested, Miss Keith was appointed, at the suggestion of Mr. Tenney, of the Christian Commission of the New West; Mrs. Steele works in connection with the Home Missionary Society; Miss Snyder with the Christian Commission of the New West; Miss Carter with the American Missionary Association; while Miss Wilson is sent out simply under the auspices of this Association.

The Association has thus, in the first eight months of its existence, done something towards carrying the gospel to the Mormons in Utah, the refugees in Kansas, the poor whites in Maryland, the colored people in the South, and the New Mexicans in Albuquerque.

Appeals are made for thirty teachers for Utah; for teachers who can speak Spanish, to go to New Mexico; for many fields suggested by the American Missionary Association.

Forty-one auxiliaries, sixty-nine life members, and two hundred and four annual members were enrolled before the first annual meeting.

THE WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS,

Acting with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS.

[Embracing territory east of Ohio. Headquarters at No. 1 Congregational House, Boston.]

OFFICERS.

President. — Mrs. ALBERT BOWKER.

Corresponding Secretaries. — Miss ELLEN CARRUTH, Mrs. G. B. PUTNAM, Mrs. J. A. HASKELL.

Recording Secretary. — Mrs. J. A. COPP.

Assistant Recording Secretary. — Mrs. S. BRAINERD PRATT.

Home Secretary. — Miss ABBIE B. CHILD.

Treasurer. — Mrs. BENJ. E. BATES.

Assistant Treasurer. — Miss EMMA CARRUTH.

Auditor. — JOSHUA W. DAVIS, Esq. (All of Boston.)

FOREIGN WORK. — This Board has under its care in the foreign field, eighty-two missionaries and assistant missionaries, who superintend the work among women in its various departments, and seventy-one Bible-readers, who go from house to house to read and teach the Scriptures ; the number of women reached by six of these in the city of Madura, India, alone is estimated at more than fourteen thousand. The Board also supports twenty-three boarding and high schools, besides the female department of Armenia College, and five homes for higher education, containing in all over one thousand pupils; and ninety-four village and day schools, with between two and three thousand pupils.

HOME DEPARTMENT OF WORK — In this country there are connected with the Board twenty branch societies, each comprising not less than twenty auxiliaries and five conference associations, including a less number of societies. In these larger organizations there are between nine hundred and one thousand auxiliaries and more than six hundred mission circles among children and young people, making a total of over fifteen hundred organizations. The receipts for the year 1880, including a gift of $25,000 for Armenia College, and $20,000 for the enlargement of the Constantinople Home, were $127,968.17.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE INTERIOR.

[Embracing territory from Ohio to the Rocky Mountains. Headquarters at No. 75 Madison Street, Chicago.]

OFFICERS.

President. — Mrs. MOSES SMITH, Detroit, Michigan.

Secretaries. — Mrs. E. W. BLATCHFORD, Chicago; Miss MARY E. GREENE, Chicago; Mrs. G. B. WILLCOX, Chicago; Mrs. GEO. H. HULL, Englewood, Illinois.

Treasurer. — Mrs. J. B. LEAKE, Chicago.

Auditor. — Rev. G. S. F. SAVAGE, Chicago.

FOREIGN WORK. — The Woman's Board of the Interior, at the close of the year ending Nov. 1, 1880, had in the foreign field, doing similar work to that done in the other Board, thirty missionaries, six boarding and high schools, containing between two and three hundred pupils, forty-one village and day schools, with upwards of fourteen hundred scholars, and fifty-six native Bible-women, teachers, and helpers.

HOME DEPARTMENT OF WORK. — This Board has connected with it ten State branches, comprising eight hundred and two auxiliaries, young ladies' societies, and mission circles among the children. The receipts for the last financial year were $24,011.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF MISSIONS OF THE PACIFIC.

[Embracing territory west of the Rocky Mountains. Headquarters in San Francisco.]

OFFICERS.

President. — Mrs. J. R. MCLEAN.

Vice-Presidents. — Mrs. A. L. STONE, Mrs. W. IJAMS, Mrs. E. P. BAKER, Mrs. S. E. HENSHAW.

Secretaries. — Mrs. E. A. WARREN, Mrs. K. M. FOX, Mrs. H. E. JEWETT, Mrs. S. SMITH.

Treasurer. — Mrs. R. E. COLE.

Auditor. — E. P. FLINT, Esq.

This Board, which has seventy or more churches connected with it, has thirty auxiliaries, and sixteen young people's societies. These support two missionaries and one boarding school in the foreign field. Its receipts during its last financial year were $3,188.20. This Board is of comparatively recent organization, and is laying foundations for future labor on the Pacific Coast.

A monthly magazine, Life and Light for Women, is issued jointly by the three Boards. Price, including postage, sixty cents a year in advance. Subscriptions should be sent to the secretary of Life and Light, No. 1 Congregational House, Boston.

There are fifty millions of women and children dependent upon the Christian women in the Congregational churches in the United States alone for a knowledge of the gospel. Their need is great; the means for supplying it abound in the churches; the active co-operation of every female member is earnestly requested in the endeavor to make known to them the way of eternal life.

The American Tract Society is one of the grand union organizations brought into being by the development of the missionary spirit early in the century. Its special object has been, by means of tracts and books and Christian periodicals, to speak to the hearts of men, through their eyes. It has prepared and maintained a great reservoir of pure and wholesome Christian reading, from which all those wishing to get good themselves or do good to others might draw at will. It has also aimed to carry the truth wherever it might do good. It has placed its reading in the hands of missionaries, foreign and home, sailors' chaplains, and of men and women all over the world who were disposed to use it in Christian work. It has established the special agency of Colportage, by which to reach the most needy places in our own land.

The Society circulates more than $400,000 worth of Christian truth annually. Hundreds of the very best writers of Christian literature have been contributors to its stores, and are now ready to furnish whatever is needed, either for permanent or periodical reading. Seven weekly and monthly papers are published, each one of which is a model of its kind. Five thousand books, thirty thousand tracts, and twenty thousand papers can be issued from its presses every day. It has a fine assortment of books for Sunday-school Libraries at moderate prices and fixed discounts. The papers are beautifully illustrated, and are furnished as cheaply as those of the same quality can anywhere be obtained.

Thanks to an appreciative public, the business of the Society defrays all its running expenses, so that it is in a good position to carry forward its benevolent work. For years it has spent every dollar which has been contributed for the purpose by churches and individuals in grants of Christian reading to go all over the world, and in the support of its faithful, self-denying, hand-to-hand missionaries, who do their work very largely in regions where as yet the churches have not come.

It is pleasant to notice that the interest in the Tract work, which seemed to flag for a time, is reviving. Many churches have come to its support during the past two or three years. All churches, through this Society, can have the opportunity of furnishing the Christian reading which they love to the needy people of the whole land, without the prejudice of a denominational imprint and without the cost of machinery.

In behalf of those in need in this country and in foreign lands and on the sea, calls are made for ten times the amount that can now be furnished. The Society will gladly respond to those calls to the full extent warranted by the liberality of its supporters.

The Seminary was located with a view to the advantages of uninterrupted study. These advantages have been retained, and are accounted of increasing value. At the same time, through the rise and growth of cities in the immediate vicinity, the students of the Seminary have special opportunities for studying the various conditions of Church Work, and the different methods of preaching.

The annual period of study embraces forty weeks, and is divided into two terms. The first term of the present Seminary year will end on Thursday, March 10, and be followed by a vacation of three weeks. The second term will commence on Thursday, March 31, and continue till the Anniversary, Thursday, June 30, to be followed by a vacation of nine weeks. The first term of the next Seminary year will begin on Thursday, September 1. The Lectures to all the classes begin promptly; it is therefore important that all the students should be present at the beginning of the Seminary year.

In addition to the regular course of instruction, special courses of lectures are delivered by eminent clergymen, on Foreign Missions, and on Congregationalism. Familiar addresses are also given every year on practical questions relating to pastoral life by clergymen and others, invited by the students.

A Fourth Year has been established for advanced study. All the departments will be represented in the instruction of this year, special attention being given to the higher and more difficult questions — whether philosophical, critical, or more immediately practical — which are engaging the attention of Christian scholars, pastors, and teachers. One aim of the year will be the promotion of productive work on the part of students. The required lectures, therefore, will be fewer than in the preceding years, and special facilities will be afforded for private research and study. Provision will be made for a system of scholarships and fellowships. Admission to this course will be by vote of the Faculty.

The Library now numbers more than 38,000 volumes, is constantly increased, and is open every week-day for the examination and drawing of books. The accession of the library of the late Professor Niedner, of Berlin, has proved to be of exceptional value. The Museum comprises a cabinet of minerals, objects relating to missionary life and work, a monumental slab from Nimroud, a relief model of Jerusalem, and the large and choice collection of Palestinian birds, animals, flowers, coins, inscriptions, photographs, etc , gathered by Dr. Selah Merrill, the archæologist of the American Palestine Exploration Society. A well-furnished Gymnasium is open for the use of the students.

For information respecting Conditions of Membership, Course of Study, the Fourth Year, Expenses, and Beneficiary Aid, see Catalogue, which may be obtained by application to Prof. Egbert C. Smyth, President of the Faculty.

BANGOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, BANGOR, ME.

This institution was chartered by the Legislature of Massachusetts in February, 1814, and was opened for students in October, 1816. It has been in constant service since, and has graduated several hundred pastors, missionaries, teachers, editors, and college presidents and professors.

FACULTY OF INSTRUCTION.

President and Professor Emeritus. — Rev. ENOCH POND, D. D.
Sacred Literature. — Rev. DANIEL S. TALCOTT, D. D.
Ecclesiastical History. — Rev. LEVI L. PAINE, D. D.
Homiletics. — Rev. JOHN S. SEWALL, D. D.
Systematic Theology. — Rev. LEWIS F. STEARNS, A. M.
New Testament Greek. — Rev. FRANCIS B. DENIO, A. M.

TERMS OF ADMISSION. — Bangor Seminary is open to all denominations of Christians. Candidates for admission must produce testimony of their church-membership, and of their collegiate education. If they have not pursued a college course, they will be examined, and must exhibit mental training and attainments sufficient, in the judgment of the Faculty, to warrant their entering upon a course of theological study. Those whose age or circumstances forbid the pursuit of the complete course of study may, at the discretion of the Faculty, be admitted to the studies of the Middle year, and continue their course with the full privileges of the Seminary.

COURSE OF STUDY. — Junior Year, Hebrew Grammar, Principles of Interpretation, Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; New Testament Greek; Introductory Philosophy, with text-book and lectures; Rhetoric, Essays, and Lectures on Style and English Literature.

Middle Year, Systematic Theology; Ancient Church History; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued; Vocal Culture and Oratory.

Senior Year, Mediæval and Modern Church History; Homiletics; Pastoral Theology and Church Polity; Exegetical studies continued; New Testament Greek continued.

PREACHING. — As it is believed to be conducive to the best professional training to combine practice with theory, students are encouraged during the Senior year to preach as opportunity offers, and so far as they may without interfering with their Seminary duties. They usually take a license to preach at the close of the Middle year; and during the vacation are employed as missionaries of the Maine Missionary Society. Through the remainder of their course they are frequently called upon to supply vacant churches, or the missionary outposts of the region.

POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP. — A Scholarship of one thousand dollars has recently been given to Bowdoin College for the purpose of aiding any student who, after graduating at the Seminary, desires to take a post-graduate year at the College.

EXPENSES. — Each student is charged two dollars a year for incidental expenses. There is no other charge for tuition, room, furniture, library, or any privilege of the Seminary. The dormitory has been thoroughly repaired and refitted. The rooms are carpeted and furnished. The Washburn fund and some other funds were given expressly to aid members of the Seminary. The income of these funds will be distributed to those students whose circumstances require it, and will amount to about half the expense of board.

LIBRARY. — The Seminary has an excellent library, numbering between fifteen and sixteen thousand volumes, specially selected to meet the wants of the students. There is a permanent library fund of ten thousand dollars, with the income of which constant additions are made of the latest and most valuable literature.

The next Seminary year will open on Thursday, Sept. 8, 1881.

CHICAGO THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, Chicago, Ill.

Opened for service, October, 1858.

FACULTY.

Rev. Franklin W. Fisk, D. D., Wisconsin, Professor of Sacred Rhetoric.
Rev. James T. Hyde, D. D., Iowa, Professor of New Testament Literature and Interpretation.
Rev. George N. Boardman, D. D., Illinois, Professor of Systematic Theology.
—— —— —— Sweetzer and Michigan Professor of Ecclesiastical History.
Rev. Samuel Ives Curtiss, D. D., New England Professor of Old Testament Literature and Interpretation.
Rev. G. Buckingham Willcox, D. D., Stone Professor of Pastoral Theology and Special Studies.
Rev. Truman M. Post, D. D., Lecturer on Ecclesiastical History.
Edward M. Booth, A. M., Instructor in Elocution.
Prof. George N. Boardman, D. D., Librarian.

Terms of Admission. — The Seminary is open to students of all denominations. Candidates for admission to the regular course must be of good moral character and must have received a collegiate education, or an equivalent preparation for theological studies. Students from other theological seminaries may be admitted, and applicants to advanced standing.

Terms and Vacations. — The next term of study will begin on Wednesday, Sept. 14, 1881, and continue till the last Thursday in April, when will follow a vacation of four months, to be devoted by the students to reading on assigned topics, and to missionary or other remunerative labor.

Seminary Grounds and Buildings. — The Seminary grounds front Union Park, in the West Division of the city. The location is pleasant and healthful, removed from the busier parts of the city, and yet connected with the centre of business by two lines of city railway. The Seminary buildings — Keyes Hall and Carpenter Hall — are arranged according to approved models, each study having two bedrooms attached, and provide accommodations for about eighty students.

Course of Study. — The Junior Year is mainly devoted to the study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; the Middle Year to Systematic Theology, Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures, and Church History; and the Senior Year to Homiletics, Pastoral Theology, Church History, and Old and New Testament Exegesis. The "Special Course" includes the entire instruction afforded by the Seminary, except in Hebrew and Greek. Great prominence is given to the Interpretation of the Scriptures from the English Version. Studies are also pursued in Moral Philosophy and Rhetoric. Instruction (elective) will be given each year either in Chaldee, Syriac, or Arabic, if desired. Assistance will also be afforded to those who wish to study grammatical and exegetical works in German. There is a Rhetorical Exercise each week for the Junior and Middle Classes, devoted to Essays, Orations, Discussions, and the reading of Scriptures and Hymns.

Examinations. — In each year there are two public examinations, oral and written, of all the classes: the first during the week before the twenty-first day of December, and the second during the week before the Anniversary in April.

Library. — The Seminary Library consists at present of about fifty-five hundred volumes, mainly works of standard value. The students also have access to the large public library of the city.

Expenses. — No charges are made for instruction, the rent of rooms, or for the use of the Library and Reading-room. Suites of rooms have been furnished throughout by churches, or individuals, whose names they bear. The only necessary expenses of the students are for board, fuel, gas, text-books, the care of rooms, washing, and for such especial damages as the property of the Seminary may suffer at their hands. Board can be had in private families in the neighborhood of the Seminary at about three dollars a week.

Pecuniary Aid. — From the American Education Society, supplemented by the Western Education Society and the Scholarship funds of the Seminary, a total one hundred and fifty dollars a week during term time; additional aid in clothing is furnished, when needed, by Ladies' Benevolent Societies; medical attendance without charge in case of illness; and such sums as may be received for preaching or teaching.

Application for admission, or for catalogues, may be made to either of the Professors, or to Rev. G. S. F. Savage, Secretary and Treasurer, 112 West Washington Street, Chicago, Ill.

By its organization the Seminary is closely allied to the churches through the Pastoral Union, which annually elects the Trustees.

The plan of instruction is so arranged as to make the study of the Bible the chief feature of the entire course. The patrons, guardians, and teachers of the Institution are persuaded that an exegetical and experimental knowledge of the Divine Word should be sought first of all by candidates for the gospel ministry. They also believe that scholarly investigation, controlled and tempered by the spirit of truth, justifies unfaltering adherence to the doctrinal system set forth in the accredited formularies of New England Congregationalism.

It is the aim of each Professor to strengthen, on the part of the students, the habit of personal investigation. Daily drills bring teachers and pupils into such close relations as favor mental activity and appropriate criticism. This confidential intercourse also contributes in many ways to the promotion of personal piety; and it is gratifying to observe how promptly the young men co-operate with their instructors in seeking this fundamental qualification for the sacred office.

TERMS OF ADMISSION. — Candidates for admission are expected to produce evidence that they are members of some Christian church, and that they have graduated at some college, or have made such literary acquisitions as. in the opinion of the Faculty, are an equivalent preparation for theological studies. They will be examined in reference to their personal piety and their motives in seeking the ministry.

The special or short course has been discontinued.

Besides lectures on Congregationalism, Moot Councils are held from time to time, for the purpose of making the student familiar with the principles and usages of our Church Polity.

EXPENSES. — No charge is made for tuition, room rent, or the use of the library. The rooms are supplied with necessary articles of furniture.

Arrangements for board, at a common table, are made by the Trustees. The price of board will not exceed $3.50 per week. Assistance will be furnished towards defraying this expense, in proportion to the necessities of each student, at the discretion of the Faculty. Fuel and lights may be estimated at from $15 to $20 the year for each room. In addition, the American Education Society renders aid to the amount of $100 annually. Students who are licensed have occasional opportunities to preach for compensation.

CALENDAR. — There is but one term of study in the year, which begins on the second Thursday of September, and closes on the second Thursday of May. Students have opportunity in the long vacation to engage in some form of Christian activity, from which they may derive religious advantages and practical knowledge, as well as pecuniary benefit.

Persons desiring to join the Seminary are invited to address Prof. WM. THOMPSON, from whom they will receive any needed additional information.

DEPARTMENT OF THEOLOGY IN OBERLIN COLLEGE,

OBERLIN, OHIO.

Opened for service in 1835.

FACULTY.

Rev. JAMES H. FAIRCHILD, D. D., President, Finney Professor of Theology and Moral Philosophy.
Rev. JOHN MORGAN, D. D., Professor Emeritus of New Testament Literature and Biblical Theology.
Rev. HIRAM MEAD, D. D., Holbrook Professor of Sacred Rhetoric and Pastoral Theology.
Rev. JUDSON SMITH, D. D., Professor of Church History and Positive Institutions.
Rev. WILLIAM G. BALLANTINE, Professor of Old Testament Language and Literature.
WILLIAM B. CHAMBERLAIN, A. M., Instructor in Elocution.
Rev. A. HASTINGS ROSS, Special Lecturer on Church Polity.
Rev. HENRY COWLES, D. D., Lecturer on Topics in Religious Experience.
Rev. PHILLIPS BROOKS, D. D., Lecturer on Preaching.

The Department of Theology is open for the admission of students of every denomination. Applicants must furnish satisfactory evidence of Christian character. A full collegiate education is regarded as furnishing a normal preparation for the course in Theology. Those who are not graduates of reputable colleges are required to furnish evidence of culture, in all essential points, fully equivalent to that which is given by a college course, and are admitted only upon careful examination in the ordinary collegiate branches. Upon the satisfactory completion of the regular three-years' course, the Academic Degree of Bachelor of Divinity (B. D.) is conferred.

COURSE OF STUDY. — First Year. — Hebrew, and Old Testament Exegesis; Harmony of the Gospels, and Theology of the New Testament; Natural Theology; Evidences of Christianity; Authority and Inspiration of the Scriptures; and Introductory Lectures on the History of the Church

Middle Year. — Systematic Theology; Hebrew Exegesis continued. and Literature of the Old Testament; introductory lectures on Homiletics; History of the Ancient Church; lectures on the Epistles.

Senior Year. — History of the Mediæval and Modern Church; History of Doctrine; Homiletics; written and extempore Sermons; Pastoral Theology; and lectures on the various forms of Scepticism.

LIBRARY. — The Libraries of the College contain over fifteen thousand volumes.

COUNCIL HALL, the building devoted exclusively to the Department of Theology, provides fully furnished rooms for fifty students. No expense is incurred for instruction, for the use of the libraries or of public rooms; and the students in Theology enjoy, without charge, the privileges of all the other departments of the College. The price of board is from $2.00 to $2.50 per week; or from $72 to $90 for the thirty-six weeks of the Theological year. Fuel and lights will not cost more than $15. Add the charge of $5.00 per term for the care of the building, and the entire necessary expenses of the year (not including clothing, travelling expenses, and books) need not exceed $100.

Help is granted from scholarship funds contributed by friends of the Department and by the churches of the State, and from the American Education Society. The amount ordinarily received from both these sources does not vary much from $150.

The opportunities for students to aid in meeting their expenses are sufficiently numerous. Some are employed as teachers in the Preparatory School connected with the College, and the amount received for teaching an hour each day exceeds the cost of board. Many vacant pulpits in the vicinity are supplied by theological students, for which compensation is rendered. During the summer vacation of fifteen weeks, all members of the Department may supply vacant pulpits in Home Missionary and other fields, and such opportunities are abundant.

The year of study in this Department consists of thirty-six weeks, in three terms. The anniversary occurs June 25, 1881. The next year begins Tuesday, Sept. 13, 1881.

Opened for service, June, 1869.

FACULTY.

Rev. JOSEPH A. BENTON, D. D., Professor of Sacred Literature, and (pro tem.) of Homiletics.

Rev. GEORGE MOOAR, D. D., Professor of Systematic Theology, and (pro tem.) of Ecclesiastical History.

Lectures are given frequently by leading pastors of the State.

REGULAR STUDIES. — First Year. Greek; Hebrew; Sacred Geography and Antiquities; Origin, History, Authority, Inspiration, and Canon of the Bible; Interpretation of the Scriptures; Religions of the World, other than the Christian; Natural Science; Mental and Moral Science.

Second Year. — Biblical Theology; Greek; Hebrew; Exercises in the Exposition of the Scriptures; Systematic Theology; History of Doctrines; Elocution.

Third Year. — Pastoral Theology; Church History; Church Polity; Homiletics; Elocution; Connection of Natural Science with Religion. [An exercise in Hebrew and Greek Exegesis once each week during the third year.]

SPECIAL STUDIES. — In special cases, particular and modified courses of instruction will be given to those who cannot remain three years, or who for other reasons cannot take the full course of three years; and these courses of instruction will be adapted to the necessities of each person, it being under tood that every one of this class will continue his studies as long as practicable.

PREPARATORY STUDIES. — Young men who have not had the advantage of a collegiate course, and who are, for good reasons, debarred from the prospect of such a course, are enabled to pursue literary and scientific studies under the direction of the Professors in the Golden Gate Academy, immediately associated with the Seminary. These preparatory studies will vary with the requirements of each student.

CALENDAR. — The year consists of but one term, and begins with the fourth Thursday in August and ends with the middle of May. There will be a recess from the 20th of December to the 3d of January. Students should begin promptly with the term.

TERMS OF ADMISSION. — Credible evidence of piety, membership in some evangelical church, a collegiate education, or such other literary and scientific attainments as promise a fair degree of usefulness, will entitle all young men to the advantages of this Seminary. The benefits of the institution are accorded alike to students of all denominations of Christians.

EXPENSES. — There will be no charge for tuition, rent of rooms, or use of furniture. The Trustees will, as far as practicable, furnish text-books free to those who are in need, themselves being the judges of the necessity. Those who desire it can board on the premises at the rate of three dollars per week. Fifty cents additional will be charged for washing.

PECUNIARY AID. — The American Education Society will render aid to the pupils of this Seminary who are needy, who are college graduates, and who take the full course of three years. The amount bestowed will be, when possible, $100 a year to each beneficiary.

An endeavor is continually made to provide for all the wants of every young man who wishes to take the full course of study, and every such person is urged to come to the Seminary whether he has any means of his own or not. It is believed that the necessary expenses of a Theological School are less here than anywhere else in the land.

MARK BAILEY, M. A., Vocal Culture and Elocution.

RELATION TO THE UNIVERSITY. — The Divinity School is one of the Departments of Yale College. Its members receive from the Corporation, on completing their three years' course of study, the degree of B. D. They have access to the public collections of the University, such as the Library, the Peabody Museum, and the collection of paintings and statuary in the School of the Fine Arts. They are permitted to attend, free of expense, so far as will not conflict with their professional studies, the lectures and recitations in the College and the Sheffield Scientific School, and, if expecting to become foreign missionaries, those of the Medical Department.

COURSE OF STUDY. — The first year is devoted chiefly to the Exegesis of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; the second year to Systematic Theology and Church History; the third year to Sacred Rhetoric, the History of Christian Doctrine, and Church Polity. Additional lectures on Preaching and other important subjects are delivered before all the classes by eminent ministers and scholars in this country and Europe. There are also optional classes conducted by the Professors, in New Testament Introduction, German, Syriac, and Chaldee. Once a week there is a rhetorical exercise for all the classes. Instruction in vocal culture and elocution is continued through the entire course.

GRADUATE CLASS. — Students who have completed a three years' course of theological study, here or elsewhere, are admitted, on application, to the Graduate Class, established two years since, in which advanced studies in Theology are pursued under the direction of the Professors.

THE LIBRARIES of the University, to which the students have access, including the Reference Library of the Divinity School, contain 120,000 volumes.

THE HOOKER FELLOWSHIP, for the encouragement of further theological study in this country or abroad, the income of which is $700 a year for two years after graduation, is offered every alternate year.

EXPENSES. — There is no charge for instruction, use of libraries, or room rent. The rooms, which will accommodate 150 students, are designed in general for only one occupant. Each room has a bedroom attached, and is carpeted and furnished with all needful furniture except bedclothing. The chief expenses for the session are for board, an average of $3.20 a week, fuel and light, $25 to $30, and $10 a year for care of room and incidental expenses.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS AND OTHER AIDS. — Students whose circumstances require it are aided to the amount of $100 a year, from the income of scholarship funds. Additional aid to the amount of $75 to $100 is afforded by the American Educational Society to its beneficiaries.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE TERM. — The next annual term of study will begin on Thursday, Sept. 15, 1881, and continue till the third Thursday in May, when the vacation of four months, in which the students have the opportunity to engage in some form of remunerative labor, will commence.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION. — The Seminary is open on equal terms to students of all Christian denominations. Applications for admission, or for the annual Catalogue containing further information, may be made to any member of the Faculty, or to the Secretary,

* A dash in the column of colleges implies that the student has never been connected with any college; the name of a college followed by a dash in place of year, implies that the student was connected with that college, but did not complete the course. A more precise list of the colleges and universities is on page 68.

† "Sen." means Senior, "Mid." Middle, "Jun." Junior. "Sp." means Special Course; and when followed by "S.," "M.," or "J.," means Special Course Senior, and the like. "R. L." means Resident Licentiate, "Grad." means Graduate Class.

COLLEGE EDUCATION OF THE STUDENTS.

In this table, a number in parentheses denotes that that number, although once connected with the college mentioned, did not complete the course. The figures not in parentheses denote graduates of the college mentioned. In these columns of figures, blanks are left instead of ciphers, so that the figures may be more noticeable, and the blanks always denote ciphers.

THE ANNUAL STATISTICS OF THE CHURCHES AND MINISTERS.

THE following pages contain the statistics as collected in 1880 by the statistical secretaries of the several State organizations, and compiled for this publication by the secretary of the National Council, under vote of the publishing committee appointed by the Council.

The secretary, as heretofore, in no case presumes to insert or omit the name of church or minister on any authority but that of the State secretaries, representing their own organizations, or of Councils subsequent to the date of annual reports.

The contents of the statistics are as follows: —

1. The Statistics of the Churches and Pastors, by States.
2. List of Foreign Missionaries, arranged by Missions.
3. List of Ministers without Pastoral Charge, by States.
4. General Summary Tables for the year.
5. Tables of Summaries, 1858-1881.
6. Remarks upon the Statistics.
7. The National, State and local Organizations of the Churches; with Officers, and dates of sessions in 1881; and the local organizations.
8. Alphabetical List of Ministers, with P. O. address, and indexed to pages.
9. Alphabetical List of Licentiates.

RULES OF COMPILATION.

1. To arrange in alphabetical order everything capable of it; except that the churches in any one town or city are placed according to age.

2. To make each State list conform strictly to the State boundaries. Churches or ministers reported by the Association of a State other than their own are, therefore, transferred to their proper places; and the summaries are correspondingly corrected.

3. To make new tables each year. "Last year's report" (if known to be such) is always omitted. No allowance is made for the membership of any non-reporting church or Sunday school, except such as is made by the State secretaries, who are the proper judges of its propriety. The list of churches of this year is compared, name by name, with that of last year, and all variations are mentioned with the State summary, so that each church can be traced from year year.

4. To examine carefully all the tables, with a view to correction or addition by correspondence, especially to correct "pastoral supply" to the latest moment. Proof-sheets have been sent to all the secretaries who could be reached in season. But no such changes have been allowed to affect the summaries.

5. To complete the statistics by (1) giving in some form every statistical fact obtainable,— items given by some States, but not by all, being aggregated with the respective State Summaries; and (2) putting into finished State and general summaries, with "totals" in all cases, everything capable of it; so that no person in search of any statistical fact shall be obliged to perform any arithmetical calculation to find it.

MINOR EXPLANATIONS.

1. Any church given in brackets is one organized since the date of State report; not included in the summary, but inserted for information. A few churches temporarily not associated are inserted by their own wish.

2. Installed pastors are marked "p," or "i"; others in service are not marked. Blanks in the column of pastoral supply, meaning no regularly engaged minister, are left blank for the convenience of those who note pastoral changes.

3. Post-office addresses of ministers in pastoral service are not found in the tables of churches, but in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers

4. The two columns following the names of ministers in the tables of churches denote (1) the year of ordination, (2) the year when the minister was installed, or commenced service with that church.

5. A star (*) prefixed to the name of a minister in pastoral service, not installed, implies that he is not a member of any organization of churches or ministers in that State; but not many States so designate in the tables. . A star similarly prefixed in the General Alphabetical List of Ministers denotes that he is found in the original State alphabetical list, but is reported not to be a member of any such organization in the United States; or that he is found supplying some church, but is not in the State alphabetical list.

6. Licentiates are not reckoned as ministers. Churches supplied by such, or by ministers of other denominations, are reckoned as vacant; but the number of such churches is given in each State summary. No ministers of other denominations (if so known) are inserted in the General Alphabetical List. Some ministers belong to the two denominations at once.

7. The names of some Congregational ministers are, doubtless, missing; but it is solely because they are not reported by any organization of churches or ministers

8. Under "Church Members," "Absent" are included in "Males," "Females," and "Total." "Additions," "Removals," and "Baptisms" cover the twelve months next preceding the date of report given with the name of each State.

9. Blanks in any column of figures are such as were so left in the State Minutes. They ought always to signify "no report," but some States do not follow the proper rule of inserting a cipher where "none" is meant, and the examiner must conjecture, in any given case, whether "none" or "no report" is intended. In our General Summaries, a blank invariably signifies "no report."

* This list is made from the reports of the several State organizations, and is supposed to include only members of some organization of ministers or churches. A few not members (but inserted on authority from the States) are starred. The figures against names denote the year of ordination, which some States do not furnish. The (contracted) name of a State (in brackets) against any person's name denotes that he is reported by such State and not by the one where he resides.

☞ For residence of some of the above we cannot vouch.

1. Some are names of ministers lately resigned, to whom we give last address.

2. Some are names appearing on lists of Associations many years, whose present residence is not known.

The secretary of the National Council will be glad to receive missing dates of ordination for names in the above list, and first names instead of initials.

NOTE.—1. The Foreign Missionaries are not included in the "total ministers."

2. Most of the churches "not supplied" have regular public worship, but no one minister engaged for continuous service. Many are in the interval between pastorates.

3. Most of the "acting pastors" are practically the same as "pastors," the difference being in the omission of formal installation.

4. The number of ministers "not in pastoral work" includes (with a few authorized exceptions) only those who are members of some Association or Conference. When persons not thus members cease to be in pastoral service, they necessarily cease to be reported.

5. Blanks signify "no report."

NOTES. — 1. The "total" church members above, in several States, and therefore in the general total, exceeds the sum of "males" and "females," because some churches report the total without mentioning the particulars whose sum makes it; but the relative proportion is not affected.

2. "Absent" denotes persons who live at a place other than that of their church relation, and do not worship with their church.

3. The removals by "discipline" sometimes include the number of persons whose names are dropped from the church lists on account of long absence.

4. The churches making no reports are included in the Summaries; a past report of membership is included if so done by the State reports, but no estimate is made of "additions," etc.

5. Blanks in the above table denote "no report."

6. Arizona and New Mexico are inserted for the first time.

NOTES. — 1. The distinction is made between contributions for benevolent purposes and moneys raised for any home expenses. For instance, money given to the general Sabbath School cause is benevolent; money expended by a church in supporting its own Sabbath School is a home expenditure, as much as a pastor's salary.

2. The amount of Home Expenditure does not mean all that is spent in a given place, but solely what is raised by a church itself, exclusive of all outside aid.

3. The amounts reported above for the specific objects of benevolence are such as are reported by the State organizations, and are extremely below the facts. They are inserted as indicating proportions, but are not worth adding up. It should be noted that in some States the sums were amounts contributed to a particular society; in others, for causes represented by that society, — a distinction which we cannot preserve this year. Some States so group objects that some items cannot be distinguished.

4. It will be seen that the reports are very imperfect. Only 2,896 report "Benevolent Contributions," and only 2,613 report their "Home Expenditures," but the latter number is a decided increase.

* Given in Iowa tables for cost of 184 churches, but not added up.

NOTE. — But few States reported the items for this important table. The ordinations, etc., are therefore compiled from preceding lists, and the columns of "deaths" are made to conform to Rev. Mr. Hazen's list, as given in this issue, and not to the several Minutes.

Lists of new and dropped churches are given with the Summary of each State.

The gains marked "a" above are only gain in reports, being gain over "no report" last year. The losses marked "b" are, similarly, loss by such as reported last year, but make no report this year.

Blanks signify no report, and our necessary ignorance.

The total of MEMBERS is greater than the sum of males and females, and total additions and removals are sometimes greater than the sum of particulars, because totals are sometimes reported alone. The proportion of males and females is, however, correct. "Absent" are included in males, females, and total.

As to "Contributions" and "Home Expenditures," in this table, it will be seen that it is more an exhibit of the number of churches reporting than of totals raised. Before the issue of 1867, one half of the churches did not report either item; many States did not have the item in their schedules.

In this table, the "new" churches are occasionally such as were previously "dropped."

Under "Died" (Ministers), until 1873 no count was kept to distinguish between "acting pastors" and "without charge." The difference between "pastors" and "totals" includes these two classes. The fluctuations under "Benevolent Contributions" are greatly due to more or less full reports. See the annual number of churches reporting, in table next above.

REMARKS UPON THE STATISTICS.

STATES. — Arizona and New Mexico are added to the States and Territories upon our list.

COMPARISONS between figures reported last year and this year are as follows, the specific changes by States being given in Summary IV. : —

Number of churches as printed Jan. 1, 1880,			3,674
New churches added to the list,		123
Churches dropped from the list,		52

Net increase by such States,		795,675 10
Total net increase by reports,			851,261.09
Total amount reported this year,			$3,446,489.90

POSSIBLE IMPROVEMENTS.

Our statistics can be improved if all parties, especially clerks collecting returns, will notice a few points where defects are apt to exist. We venture to suggest some such.

The items requested, and their order, could be uniform. The National Council recommended (in 1877) the schedule below. Each State could follow it, at least as far as up to the questions on moneys. Blanks for the whole or the first half will be furnished on application to the secretary.

The first names of ministers are greatly needed, especially in the Alphabetical Lists. One State omits every one.

Licentiates, and ministers of other denominations, should be so specified. Some States print them as Congregational ordained ministers.

The Alphabetical Lists should be reliable rolls of Congregational ministers. We follow them implicitly.

Each issue of the State Minutes should contain a list of officers, and its date and place of next session.

The Summaries should add up everything possible.

A State Summary should tell us exactly, —

1. How many churches are served by installed pastors?
2. How many churches have pastors not installed (meaning solely ordained Congregational ministers)?
3. How many churches are statedly supplied at date by licentiates or ministers of other denominations?
4. How many churches are vacant?
5. How many ministers are pastors in the State?
6. How many are acting pastors in the State?
7. How many are without charge in the State?

☞ The absence of answers to these simple questions in some States causes days of labor and delay in compiling our national statistics.

Great care is necessary as to accuracy. In one large State, three different and irreconcilable "totals" of the number of churches in the State are given in the same issue.

Each issue of State Minutes should give a list of all new churches, and account (by name) for all dropped from the last previous list.

It is highly important that the P. O. address of each church (when different from its name as given) be inserted. For an admirable example, see Nebraska, or Ohio, in this issue.

SCHEDULE RECOMMENDED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL.

LIST OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS IN THE UNITED STATES

REPORTED BY THE SEVERAL STATE ORGANIZATIONS.

THE following is a compilation of the alphabetical lists furnished by the State Associations and Conferences, corrected by correspondence with their secretaries, to the latest possible date. The secretary of the Council in no case presumes to insert or omit a name upon his own responsibility. The State organizations (or later Councils) are alone responsible; but the secretary has used his utmost endeavors to obtain a complete and correct list. If any names are omitted, it is because they are not reported by any organization in any State.

The figures refer to pages where the name will be found, but apply only to those in pastoral service or to foreign missionaries. Those without figures are presumed to be not in pastoral service, and will be found in the list commencing on page 188.

Names starred (*) are of persons who, although mentioned (usually as supplying churches), are reported to be members of no organization of Congregational churches or ministers.

Some P. O. addresses are antiquated; but it is the best that could be done.

Licentiates are not included in this list, nor are ministers of other denominations.

Names of persons in last year's list, deceased since Jan. 1, 1880, are retained, with date of death, and with place of residence as given in 1880.

Some errors will be found in first names, initials, and spelling. No pains have been spared to secure accuracy; but efforts failing, the compiler has not ventured to follow even his own convictions, against the unmistakable testimony of the reports.

The compiler again earnestly begs the State secretaries to give the first name of every minister. A few States exclude them almost entirely. Great labor has been necessary this year to remedy such neglect.

CONGREGATIONAL HOUSE.

CONGREGATIONAL HOUSE, COR. BEACON AND SOMERSET STREETS, BOSTON.

THE SPIRITUAL SONGS SERIES

OF HYMN AND TUNE BOOKS.

BY REV. CHARLES S. ROBINSON, D. D.,

AUTHOR OF "SONGS FOR THE SANCTUARY," ETC.

WHEN the first volume of this series, "SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR CHURCH AND CHOIR," was issued in January, 1879, the Congregationalist at once predicted for it "great favor with the church," considering it "the best hymn-book which we have ever seen." That prediction is being amply verified, and already

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND COPIES

of this work and the abridged edition for social worship have been sold. Of the third book in the series, "SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL," a first edition of 10,000 copies and a second of 90,000 have been printed since July, 1880.

SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR CHURCH AND CHOIR,

Containing 1,086 hymns, with 509 tunes, chants, etc.

Bringing to the work all the advantages of a rich and ripe experience, with helpful suggestions from a vast correspondence with ministers and musicians, and rare facilities for the production of a work that should in its completeness surpass all others, Dr. Robinson has, it is believed, succeeded in giving to the churches, in this book, the richest, most useful, convenient, compact and in every way acceptable Manual of Song ever brought before the public.

The binding is strong and elegant, and the price to churches in quantities, $1.20.

SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR SOCIAL WORSHIP

Is an abridged edition of the above (with some valuable additions) designed for use in prayer meetings and in smaller churches. It contains hymns for the ordinances of the church, and is excellently adapted to the wants of churches where so complete a manual as the large edition is not needed. For prayer meetings there has been nothing yet issued which nearly equals it; as The N. Y. Observer said, "It is small, neat, comprehensive, sufficient, convenient and excellent." It contains 553 hymns, with 330 tunes, and costs to churches 60 cents in quantities.

Specimen copies of both these books sent free to ministers for examination.

To complete the series Dr. Robinson has compiled a book for the Sabbath School, entitled

SPIRITUAL SONGS FOR THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

From a critical review of this, we take the following: —

". . . The book is remarkable for the musical care with which it is prepared. There is no slovenly counterpoint in it. It is said of Beethoven that, after hearing a certain violoncellist, his ideas of the possibilities of the bass were enlarged. Certainly the Sunday-School musician will find a like charm in this book, for the bass is developed in so admirable a fashion that it often becomes a melody in itself. . . . In it, moreover, there is no superabundance of refrains. That much-abused instrument of children's praise is used discreetly, and not, as is often the case, so as to obscure the sentiment of every stanza in a cloud of the lightest of musical dust, kicked up at the end.

"The work, indeed, seems to be adapted to foster more thoughtful and quiet singing, which is destined to supersede the strained, unnatural and deafening boisterousness often hitherto cultivated. Children have been taught to 'shout' their hosannas all too literally, and to 'sing out' has sometimes meant to sing out of all relation to the thought sung. There is ample material in the volume for decorous worship; nothing in it is dreary, and there is nothing to provoke mere noise.

"It is noteworthy that this book is in line with the development of the Sunday-School idea itself. This institution is no longer a 'ragged school,' nor exclusively a 'child's school,' but the 'Bible school' of the church. Something higher than the old, well-worn ditties is therefore demanded. Such a book, well used, cannot but be a powerful force in solving the problem of 'retaining the older scholars.' Not unintelligible to the younger, it is engaging and satisfactory to the most mature. It is a fitting link between child singing and church singing. The two cannot be blended by putting the church book entire into the Sabbath-School; and yet their intimate connection is a great desideratum. Here they are woven together by the fringes. The best of these songs and the less formal of the church chorals to a certain extent coincide, and the book shades away into any good book of church hymns and tunes. There can be no chasm between the Sunday-School and the church service, if this book is faithfully used; for, beyond the fact that there are church hymns in the book itself, its whole spirit and methods are such that it is but an easy step from its platform to the one next above. In fact, this book is one of the few of its class to justify their title. It is admirably fitted to awaken spiritual life, and to express it."

Price to Sunday-Schools, 40 cents in quantities. Sample copies for examination, 25 cents. Send for circular of testimonials of those using it.

COUNT RUMFORD

HORSFORD'S

ACID PHOSPHATE

(LIQUID.)

FORMULA.

EACH FLUID DRACHM CONTAINS

5½ grains free Phosphoric Acid (PO_5)
3 grains Phosphate of Lime ($3CaO\ PO_5$)
½ gr. Phosphate of Magnes. ($3MgO\ PO_5$).
$\frac{1}{6}$ grain Phosphate of Iron ($Fe_2\ O_3\ PO_5$).
¼ grain Phosphate of Potash ($3KO,PO_5$).

Total amount of Phosphoric Acid in one fluid drachm, free and combined, 7 grains.

It contains no pyrophosphate, or metaphosphate of any base whatever.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, MENTAL AND PHYSICAL EXHAUSTION, NERVOUSNESS, DIMINISHED VITALITY, URINARY DIFFICULTIES, ETC.

HORSFORD'S
ACID PHOSPHATE

Prepared according to the directions of Prof. E. N. HORSFORD, of Cambridge, Mass.

There seems to be no difference of opinion, in high medical authority, of the value of phosphoric acid, and no preparation has ever been offered to the public which seems to so happily meet the general want as this.

It is not nauseous, but agreeable to the taste.
No danger can attend its use.
Its action will harmonize with such stimulants as are necessary to take.
It makes a delicious drink with water and sugar only.

W. A. HAMMOND, M. D, late Surgeon-General U. S. Army, said that under the use of arsenic and Horsford's Acid Phosphate, a young lady rescued her reason who had been rendered insane by a dream.

DR. M. H. HENRY, of New York, says: "Horsford's Acid Phosphate possesses claims as a beverage beyond anything I know of in the form of medicine, and in nervous diseases I know of no preparation to equal it."

DR. REUBEN A. VANCE, of New York: "The preparation on which I place the most reliance is Horsford's Acid Phosphate."

The late WINSLOW LEWIS, M. D., of Boston, said: "Having in my own person experienced those ills for which the Acid Phosphate is prescribed, I have found great relief and alleviation by its use, most cheerfully attest my appreciation of its excellence."

Prices Reasonable. Pamphlet giving further particulars mailed free on application to manuf'rs.

Physicians desiring to test it will be furnished a bottle free of expense, except express charges, if they mention CONGREGATIONAL YEAR BOOK.

MASON & HAMLIN
ORGANS

Are CERTAINLY UNRIVALLED in EXCELLENCE.

At every one of the great World's Exhibitions, where organs from the best makers of the world have been placed side by side and examined and compared through periods of several months by the most competent judges assembled from different nations, the Mason & Hamlin Organs have invariably been awarded first medals or other highest honors. No other American organs have been found equal to them at any.

The judgment of musicians is equally emphatic in regard to them. In the Catalogue of Mason & Hamlin will be found testimony from many of the most distinguished in the world, that these organs greatly excel others.

ONE HUNDRED STYLES are now made from the little Baby Organ, shown adjoining, which has been justly pronounced "a paragon of excellence and economy," at $22, to large concert organs at $900 each.

FOR LARGE CHURCHES, at $570, $480, $360 and less.

FOR SMALLER CHURCHES, $84 to $200 and up.

SUPERB DRAWING-ROOM STYLES. $200 to $510 and upwards.

POPULAR STYLES in great variety, $22 to $200 and upwards.

FOR EASY PAYMENTS, $5 per month or $6.38 per quarter and upwards.

THE BABY ORGAN is a new style, having sufficient compass for hymn tunes, anthems, songs, and popular, sacred, and secular music generally, full parts (three and a quarter octaves), with fine power and quality of tone.

Price, only $22.00.

THE LITERARY WORLD.

VOLUME XII.—1881.—$2.00 A YEAR.

A Fortnightly Journal of Literary Criticism, Discussion, and News. Devoted to Literature Exclusively, and the only Periodical of its class in the United States.

The LITERARY WORLD is pushing its way steadily forward to a commanding position. The few competitors which have started after it, from time to time, have dropped out one by one, and it remains to-day the only, as it has been so long the leading, journal of literature exclusively published in this country.

The special features of the LITERARY WORLD are:—

1. Early and full intelligence about new books and literary enterprises all over the world.
2. Descriptive and critical reviews of all important works published in this country, and a steady view of the more notable issues of the foreign press, British and Continental.
3. A department of Shakespeariana, edited by WM. J. ROLFE, who is in personal correspondence with all the eminent Shakespearians in this country and abroad.
4. A department of Notes and Queries, which is of great value to all who have anything to do with books.

THE
PERMANENT CURE OF CATARRH.

THIRTEEN YEARS AGO

CATARRH was considered an incurable disease. I had then suffered for eighteen years in a manner only known to those who have had this disease in some of its worst forms. My professional duties made exposure a necessity, and I was first attacked by a slight cold, terrible headaches which would not be cured, followed with deafness and ringing in the ears, soreness of the throat, disgusting nasal discharges, weak, inflamed eyes, hawking, rising of vile matter, black and sometimes bloody mucus, coughing, with great soreness of the lungs. The liver and stomach were polluted with the mass of diseased matter running from the head, until dyspepsia, indigestion, and liver complaint made me a wreck, and incapacitated me for my professional duties, and confined me to my bed. Compelled to resign my pastorate, and feeling that my end was near, in desperation I gave up the physicians, compounded my CATARRH SPECIFIC, and wrought upon myself a wonderful cure. Now, at the age of sixty-seven, I am wholly restored, can speak for hours with no difficulty, and never have had, in the whole thirteen years, the slightest return of the disease. EVERY PHYSICIAN who has examined my specific says it is certain, thorough, and perfect. REV. T. P. CHILDS.

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

60,000 Catarrhal Cases have applied to me for relief. Many thousands have received my Specific, and are cured. We deem it only fair that every one that wishes should have the opportunity to ascertain whether we are able to accomplish all that we claim; and for this purpose we add a few of the many hundreds of unsolicited certificates which have been sent to us by grateful patients, as well as the addresses of some who have been successfully treated, almost any of whom will doubtless respond to any inquiry by letter, if accompanied by a stamp to pay postage. Having been cured themselves, they doubtless will be willing to let the afflicted know where they may find certain relief. We have thousands of these certificates from all classes — physicians, clergymen, lawyers, judges, merchants, bankers, and business men.

DEAR MR. CHILDS: I have used your Catarrh treatment now over three months, and almost all this time in hopelessness, as it seemed I must die. By and by it began to take effect, and I began to have hope; I improved rapidly, soon could sit up, passages of the head began to open; throat and bronchial tubes grew better, cough ceased, and I now can see to write. I now expect to get well and go about my business again. I owe you a great debt of gratitude. Indeed, I owe my life to your treatment. THOMAS J. DAILY, Homer, Champaign County, Ill.

Judge J. Collett, of Lima, O., writes: "You will remember how terribly Catarrh had taken hold upon me. Now I am cured: head free, air passages all open, and breathing natural. I express to you again what I said in a recent letter, 'A thousand thanks to you for so sure a remedy and so very cheap.'"

DR. CHILDS—Dear Brother: This is to certify that I have used your Catarrh Specific and Cold Air Inhaling Balm in my family with most beneficial results. My son, now in Madison University, New York, was so badly afflicted with Catarrh I feared for a time that he was incurable, and, when I applied to you for medicine, my hope was faint. It acted speedily and efficiently, and I believe saved him from an early grave. He is now perfectly cured. My wife, who had become very much reduced by a residence in Farther India as a missionary, has derived great benefit from your Inhaling Balm. I can most heartily commend these medicines to the afflicted, believing they are all they profess to be. THOMAS ALLEN, Dayton, O.

REV. T. P. CHILDS—Dear Sir: I think you have the true theory and practice for cure of Nasal Catarrh, and also for the treatment of the respiratory organs. My throat is now so well restored that I can lecture daily without any difficulty, and find no difficulty whatever in preaching. You are at full liberty to use my name for the benefit of others. Yours very truly,

E. B. FAIRFIELD, D. D., LL. D., Chancellor of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.

The Congregationalist says: "The publishers of the Congregationalist, with multitudes of other people, are somewhat suspicious of patent medicines as a rule, and when we received the advertisement of Mr. Childs, we at first declined its insertion; but, on making inquiry, we received such satisfactory replies, and one especially from a well-known Congregational pastor not far from Rev. Mr. Childs, the proprietor of the medicine, that we withdrew our objections."

Childs' Catarrh Treatment is not sold in the drug stores as a patent medicine, because it must be adapted to the wants and constitutional needs of each patient. A knowledge of this is of importance, and of this we make a special study. We desire communication with the sufferer, that the treatment may be suited to his case. We especially seek to treat those who have tried other remedies without getting the expected benefit. We send to any one earnestly seeking the cure of this most vile and distressing disease, on receipt of a three-cent stamp, a full statement of method of home treatment and cost, with scores of testimonials from those who have been cured. Address,

THE CHURCH HYMN BOOK,

WITH TUNES.

By Rev. E. F. HATFIELD, D. D.

A Manual of Praise for Worship in the Church, the Social Circle, and the Family.

HYMNS AND METRICAL CHANTS, WITH 450 TUNES.

The book is so arranged that there are 356 pages, where a tune of the same metre can be found on the opposite page, in addition to the one to which the hymn is set, giving a choice of two tunes for each one of 1,053 hymns.

It will be noticed that in nearly every case where there is a NEW tune upon one page, there will be found a FAMILIAR tune upon the opposite one.

The book, containing as it does 1,469 hymns, selected with great care by Rev. Dr. HATFIELD (a pastor for more than thirty years), furnishes a theme for every variety of subjects suitable for use in Christian worship, and a hymn calculated to express every phase of Christian experience.

THE COLLECTION OF TUNES is large and varied, consisting of over 450 different tunes of the most popular character.

The Church Hymn Book, with Tunes, can hardly fail to meet the wants of any church, as the Hymns are REAL HYMNS, and not merely sacred poetry, and the tunes are of such a character as to satisfy the wants of the church for years, and are not trifling, ephemeral melodies, with carelessly arranged harmonies.

☞ The price of the book is exceedingly low, placing it within the reach of every church.

CATARRH

IS A TERRIBLE DISEASE.

Its fearful effects, — corruption running down the throat, weak eyes, deafness, loss of voice, loss of smell, disgusting odors, nasal deformities, and finally consumption. From first to last it is ever aggressive. Ordinary treatments are worse than useless. If neglected while a cure is possible, may rapidly develop into quick consumption. The most thorough, successful and pleasant treatment is

Dr. M. W. CASE'S

CARBOLATE OF TAR INHALANT

FOR CATARRH, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS AND DEAFNESS.

CIRCULARS, ETC., SENT FREE.

It does not require ten minutes to demonstrate the value of Carbolate of Tar, the most healing remedial agent known to science. Balsams and Cordials of the most healing and soothing properties are so combined with Pine Tree Tar that the mere breathing converts them into a dense smoke or vapor. This is inhaled, — taken right to the diseased parts. No heat, no hot water, simply inhaling or breathing it, and you feel its healing power at once. This treatment is indorsed by physicians everywhere, and highly commended by thousands who have used it with perfect satisfaction. FULL TREATMENT sent. Satisfaction always guaranteed. Consultation, Trial and Advice Free.

Dr. Case's Circular contains flattering testimonials from a great many well-known persons. One or two are quoted below: —

One of the Largest Drug Houses in the World is that of Lamar, Rankin & Lamar.

ATLANTA, GA., Feb. 21, 1881.

DR. CASE: — The Inhaler I bought of you some time ago has done my mother a world of good, and she would not part with it for anything. I shall at all times recommend it to all who are suffering. I am sir, your obedient servant,

ROBT. M. ORMOND,
With Lamar, Rankin & Lamar.

HOLTON, RIPLEY CO., IND.

Dear Doctor, — Your methods of treating Catarrh and Consumption are certainly very effectual. In hemorrhages of the lungs, I have never found a remedy that equals your Carbolate of Tar Inhalant. So-called "hopeless cases" need not despair. Your success is well earned. Long may you live to enjoy it!

C. H. CASS, M. D.

Mr. Probasco, of Bridgeton, N. J., says:

Myself and family have derived great benefit from your treatments. My second daughter we had almost given up as hopeless is now well and hearty.

From the Editor of the "Christian Statesman."

MILWAUKEE, WIS.

We call attention to the advertisement of Dr. M. W. Case, in our advertising columns. The doctor is a brother of Rev. W. W. Case, formerly a member of the Wisconsin Conference of the M. E. Church, and three years pastor of the Ausbury Church, in Milwaukee. The doctor has treated Catarrh and diseases of the Lungs and Nervous System for thirty years, and has fine success in his treatment, as his numerous patients all over the country can testify. We believe that none who are afflicted will regret conferring with him.

Address, Dr. M. W. CASE, 933 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE

COMPRISING

ITS ANTIQUITIES, BIOGRAPHY, GEOGRAPHY AND NATURAL HISTORY.

By WILLIAM SMITH.

Edited by Prof. HORATIO BALCH HACKETT and EZRA ABBOT, LL. D.

In four volumes, 8vo, 3,667 pages, with 596 illustrations.

The price of SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE is reduced as follows:

Cloth, the set, 4 vols. 8vo	from $26	to $20
Sheep	" 30	" 25
Half morocco	" 35	" 30
Half Calf, extra	" 36	" 30
Half russia	from $38	to $35
Full morocco, or full calf, gilt	" 45	" 40
Full russia, or full levant	" 50	" 45

There are several American editions of Smith's Dictionary of the Bible, but this is the only edition which comprises the entire contents of the original English edition, unabridged, with very considerable and important additions by the editors, Professors Hackett and Abbot, and twenty-six other eminent American scholars.

This edition has 500 more pages than the English, and 100 more illustrations; more than a thousand errors of reference in the English edition are corrected in this; and an Index of Scripture Passages Illustrated is added. In view of the improvements made in this edition, Professor ROSWELL D. HITCHCOCK, of New York, said: "There cannot well be two opinions about the merits of Smith's Bible Dictionary. What was, to begin with, the best book of its kind in our language is now still better." The London Bookseller remarked: "It seems that we have to thank America for the most complete work of the kind in the English, or indeed in any other language."

Dr. Smith's Dictionary is a grand thesaurus of Biblical lore, a complete compendium for the interpretation of the Scriptures in their archæology, geography, history, and their linguistic difficulties. It is worth more on a Bible-reader's desk than fifty commentaries. In it the results of modern discovery are added to the solid fruits of ancient study. Those who do not possess the Dictionary should not be without so rare a help to Bible interest and Bible study, and in purchasing, the American edition should be procured, as containing so much more than the English. — HOWARD CROSBY, D. D., New York.

In paper, presswork, cuts, maps, etc., we do not see anything to choose between this and the more costly English original; while in a multitude of other respects which affect the trustworthiness, thoroughness, and supreme excellence of the work as a thesaurus of Biblical knowledge, this is vastly to be preferred. — Congregational Review (Boston).

No similar work in our own or in any other language is for a moment to be compared with it. — Quarterly Review (London).

At the time this edition of SMITH'S DICTIONARY OF THE BIBLE was published, the following testimonial to its merits was received by the publishers: —

We fully concur in the many and unqualified testimonials and commendations of this invaluable work as taking precedence of all others in its special department, and unhesitatingly pronounce it "THE BEST." We earnestly commend it to all who wish to acquire a more perfect understanding of the Holy Scriptures.

GOOD.

Of the TEACHER'S BIBLE, published by the AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY, "The Sunday-School Times" says: "It is truly a GOOD thing done, creditable to the society, and worthy the name they have given it, a Sunday-school teacher's special edition of God's Word."

BETTER.

Rev. J. W. WILMARTH, in "The Baptist Teacher": —

"My conclusion is, that the American Tract Society have made a BETTER Bible than Bagster's. . . . I conscientiously commend their TEACHER'S BIBLE as the best to be had, and as every way satisfactory; and advise our teachers to buy it in preference to all others."

BEST.

Dr. J. H. VINCENT writes, April 16, 1879, in answer to the question of a friend: —

"The BEST Bible is the TEACHER'S BIBLE, published by the American Tract Society. They know in New York the copy and style which I have. I prefer it to every other."

The book preferred by Dr. Vincent for his own use is No. 192. Price, $10.00.

RIDGE'S FOOD for INFANTS AND INVALIDS

OLD PEOPLE

RIDGE'S FOOD

Whose digestive powers are impaired will find this diet invaluable. Many are adopting this article in DAILY USE. It is superior and more palatable than oatmeal and other similar preparations, and being thoroughly cooked in its manufacture, it does not sour or spoil.

DYSPEPTICS

Will find in Ridge's Food every qualification necessary, as it is a steam-cooked food wherein all the flesh-forming properties are retained. Its soothing and nourishing properties particularly adapt it to all conditions of the stomach.

NURSING MOTHERS

Reduced by prolonged lactation or overtaxing the nervous system should at once commence using Ridge's Food as a daily diet before the standard of health is reduced in both mother and child.

TRAVELLERS

By land or sea should always have a small can of Ridge's Food with them, as by mixing a tablespoonful in boiling or even cold water, a light, nourishing meal is at once obtainable.

FOR SUMMER COMPLAINTS.

In cases of Cholera Infantum, Dysentery, Chronic Diarrhœa, Cholera, Dyspepsia, Prostration of the System or General Debility, Ridge's Food as a dietetic is invaluable, and is a perfectly safe, nourishing and strengthening diet at all times.

Much more might be said about this preparation; but from the many testimonials received from well-known Physicians and Directors of Public Institutions, its advantages over all other articles of a similar character are manifest in its guaranteed purity. It gives quiet nights to mothers, nurses and invalids, and health, strengtn and comfort to all, and, as professionally certified, it has saved the lives of many when other diet had failed.

THE SUCCESS OF RIDGE'S FOOD

Has caused the market to be overrun with worthless imitations. In asking for Ridge's Food see that you get it. Take no other. Can be had of almost any druggist.

RIDGE'S FOOD for INFANTS AND INVALIDS

Has received the most unqualified approval from Physicians, Matrons and Mothers of the highest character and responsibility, in this and other countries.

MULTITUDES OF INFANTS

Are slowly starving at a period of infancy when development and growth are remarkably active, because of inability of mothers to furnish the necessary nutriment on account of overtaxing the nervous system, and by prolonged lactation, thus lowering the standard of health in both. Ridge's Food, from a chemical standpoint, is nearer to human milk than any other preparation.

RIDGE'S FOOD IS NOT A MEDICINE,

Neither is it a new, untried preparation, having been in use for thirty years; but it is a steam-cooked food, wherein all the flesh-forming properties are carefully retained, and its extraordinary success is due to its intrinsic merit, containing as it does all the elements essential to growth and repair, either in the Infant or the Invalid.

FOR TABLE USE.

Ridge's Food is unsurpassed for Puddings, Custards, etc., and is commended by all who have used it, being easily and quickly prepared.

RIDGE'S FOOD BLANCMANGE

Is the Most Delicious Article for the Table.

Prepared in a few minutes, with or without milk.

It is Nourishing and Satisfying.

The Cheapest Article of the Kind on the Market.

Recipes for Blanc Mange, Puddings, Custards, etc , accompanying each can. WOOLRICH & CO. on every label.

The Religious Herald for 1881.

The Religious Herald is steadily increasing in value as a family paper, and makes its worth more and more apparent to all, as its increased circulation gives the Publishers the means with which to do it.

The Editors aim to reflect fairly the religious aspect of the ministry and the churches of Connecticut of all names, but especially of the Congregational Order, and also to give such general information on religious and secular subjects, civil, social and educational, as its limits will allow.

It is their aim that the Herald shall be a safe and useful paper for the Christian family, interesting, instructive and helpful to all noble aims and worthy objects; and with the promise of aid in their efforts from some of the most gifted ministers and laymen in the State, and correspondence from the West and South and all sections of the globe, it will become more and more valuable.

The churches, the benevolent societies, the temperance work, agriculture, education, and all the departments of social and industrial enterprise will be more or less fully represented through the columns of the Herald.

SONGS OF CHRISTIAN PRAISE.

A NEW HYMN AND TUNE BOOK,

FOR

Choir and Congregation.

PUBLISHED WITH AND WITHOUT

SCRIPTURE SELECTIONS FOR RESPONSIVE READING.

Edited by the REV. CHARLES H. RICHARDS.

This book is commended to Evangelical Churches by the highest authorities, as the best compilation of Hymns and Tunes ever published. It offers in compact form, and for a low price, the very cream of our devotional Hymns and Sacred Music.

From the multitude of Testimonials which have been received, the following are selected as representative of all:—

From the CONGREGATIONALIST, Boston.

It has been compiled with a discriminating wisdom and taste, and edited with a thoroughness, which are uncommon.

From THE NEW YORK OBSERVER.

It contains everything essential to a hand-book for general worship and special services. The hymns and tunes include the old favorites, while the most acceptable modern music is largely represented.

From THE ILLUSTRATED CHRISTIAN WEEKLY, New York.

We happen to know the exceptional qualifications of the compiler of this book. . . . The work comes fully up to the high expectations we had formed for it when we heard it was in preparation. Its price puts it within the reach of all, and we think the publishers are right when they say "it is the cheapest book of its kind offered to the churches."

From THE ADVANCE, Chicago, Ill.

Another peculiar feature of the book, and one which will strongly commend it to many, is its collection, and classification according to topics, of "Selections of Scripture for Public Worship." This is perhaps the most distinctive feature of the book, and it is admirable.

From Rev. J. E. RANKIN, D. D., Washington, D. C.

The book is a grand one. Certainly the best of its kind I have ever examined.

From Rev. EDWARD HAWES, D. D., Pastor of North Cong. Church, New Haven, Conn.

A committee, after careful examination and comparison of different books, recommended the adoption of "Songs of Christian Praise with Scripture Selections." The choir and the congregation are equally pleased with the tunes and the hymns. And on the basis of our brief experience we are prepared to commend cordially the same book to all churches which are about to select one for use in the service of song.

From Rev. L. BLAKESLEY, Pastor First Congregational Church, Topeka, Kansas.

I unhesitatingly pronounce it the finest selection of hymns and tunes that ever kept company between the covers of a book. We have given it the preference over all others, are enjoying it at our homes and in our public services, and expect to become better Christians through its instrumentality.

From Rev. P. S. HURLBERT, Pastor of Presbyterian Church, Waverly, N. Y.

For two years we contemplated a change of hymn-book. We examined many. We adopted yours as soon as we saw it. To churches wishing to secure the best hymn-book published, we say, get "Songs of Christian Praise," by Rev. Chas. H. Richards.

From Rev. W. W. PATTON, D. D., Prest. Howard University, Washington, D. C.

I find it to be one of the best of its kind, as regards the selection of hymns, the adaptation of tunes and the provision of Scripture Readings, meeting satisfactorily the wants of Christian congregations as these have been developed by experience. The book is such as I should have expected from the varied culture of the editor.

From Rev. F. A. NOBLE, D. D., Chicago, Ill.

The selections for responsive reading seem to me to be as near perfect as possible.

[illegible]ITHOUT A HOM[illegible],"

Is the name of a st[illegible] Rev. E. P. Roe, running through [illegible]he columns of THE CONGREGATIONALIST [illegible] or ten months this season. More than 200,000 copies of Mr. Roe's books h[illegible] [illegible]en sold, a fact which indicates the great demand there is for them.

Our Sabbath-Scho[illegible] [illegible]artment for 1881 is under the charge of Rev. A. F. SCHAUFFLER, of New [illegible] who is known as one of the most suggestive writers and thinkers on this sub[illegible] [illegible]n the country.

Our Children's Departm[illegible] [illegible]s sustained by such writers as Mr. C. C. COFFIN, ERNEST INGERSOLL (on [illegible] [illegible]ral History), W. J. ROLFE, CLARA ERSKINE CLEMENT, and others equally [illegible] [illegible]inent, and it will be found entertaining and instructive to all, both to young and old.

A series of twelve articles or more, running through our colums this year, entitled

GREAT SUBJECTS,

And from the pens of some of the most eminent thinkers in the land, is destined to attract wide attention. Among the writers are Ex-President WOOLSEY, Gen. J. R. HAWLEY, Hon. DORMAN B. EATON, BENJAMIN VAUGHAN ABBOTT, Dr. GEO. M. BEARD and Rev. NOAH PORTER, D. D. The large space of four columns a week, on an average, is devoted to our "Literary Department." It is gotten up wholly in the interest of our readers, and we receive frequent testimonies to its value.

With seven persons on our regular editorial staff, including Rev. A. H. Clapp, D. D., in New York, who, besides other matter, furnishes a letter every week, the reader will find THE CONGREGATIONALIST in all its departments fully abreast of the times. It touches subjects of current interest to the religious public every week, not only by its editorial articles, but by a great amount of paragraphs and short matter such as all are glad to read. We offer no premiums, but are now expending upon the columns of the paper itself what otherwise might be required for that purpose. The amount of money paid out sometimes in a single week to writers for THE CONGREGATIONALIST now exceeds the sum expended in this way for six months or a year a quarter of a century ago.

Specimen numbers sent free. Price, $3.00 a year.

THE ADVANCE.

Does not every person need the reading of a distinctively religious paper? We do not endeavor merely to send out a series of tracts, but to take up and treat every live question from the Christian point of view.

Our purpose is to meet the various wants of the family. Those who have long been subscribers are kind enough to say that few, if any, newspapers are on the whole so well adapted to this end. We do not propose to be of the "no opinion" sort. But if we differ from others at any time on subjects not involving good morals and the Christian faith, we are willing to present the other side by ably written contributed articles. We do not claim infallibility.

Why do so many Congregationalists and others, East and West, take the Advance?

Answers: Some take it because of its fearless and outspoken position on subjects relating to governmental and national affairs; some because it is awake to all missionary interests; some because of its enterprise in gathering church news; some for its suggestive, terse, and practical Sunday-school lesson expositions; some for its outspoken advocacy of the cause of temperance; some for the soundness and vigor of its handling of all the religious discussions of the day; some for its Special Contributions from the best thinkers and writers of the country; some for the charm of its Children's Department; some for its stories; some for its innumerable hints and helps for the Christian life; some for other special reasons. Many also take it because it is the best family, religious, and literary newspaper they know of.

TERMS. — Three dollars a year in advance; to ministers, $2.20. But where pastors and people decide upon co-operation in order to put the Advance, if possible, into every family, we make special terms.
